PREFACE

In 2001, the 77th Texas Legislature passed the Fair Defense Act (SB 7), creating the blueprint for distribution of indigent defense funding from the State of Texas to local government through the creation of the Task Force on Indigent Defense, the first state body to administer statewide appropriations and policies. During the 82nd Legislative Session (2011), Governor Perry signed House Bill 1754 into law, establishing the Texas Indigent Defense Commission (Commission), the permanent organization that renamed and replaced the Task Force.

The Commission provides financial and technical support to counties to develop and maintain quality, cost-effective indigent defense systems that meet the needs of local communities and the requirements of the Constitution and state law. In addition to these duties, the Commission is pleased to update, provide commentary on, and publish the Fair Defense Laws after each legislative session.

The Commission gratefully acknowledges the assistance of Allison Cunningham and Brittany Long in preparing this publication, as well as Francisco Garcia, Paul Sembera and Sam Veltri for their work updating previous versions of the Fair Defense Laws.

The Commission extends special thanks to Donald Cimics and the Honorable Judge Sharon Keller whose careful attention to detail was crucial to the final editing process.

CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1.051. RIGHT TO REPRESENTATION BY COUNSEL.

(a) A defendant in a criminal matter is entitled to be represented by counsel in an adversarial judicial proceeding. The right to be represented by counsel includes the right to consult in private with counsel sufficiently in advance of a proceeding to allow adequate preparation for the proceeding.

(b) For purposes of this article and Articles 26.04 and 26.05 of this code, "indigent" means a person who is not financially able to employ counsel.

(c) An indigent defendant is entitled to have an attorney appointed to represent him in any adversary judicial proceeding that may result in punishment by confinement and in any other criminal proceeding if the court concludes that the interests of justice require representation. Except as otherwise provided by this subsection, if an indigent defendant is entitled to and requests appointed counsel and if adversarial judicial proceedings have been initiated against the defendant, a court or the courts' designee authorized under Article 26.04 to appoint counsel for indigent defendants in the county shall appoint counsel as soon as possible, but not later than the end of the third working day after the date on which the court or the courts' designee receives the defendant's request for appointment of counsel. In a county with a population of 250,000 or more, the court or the courts' designee shall appoint counsel as required by this subsection as soon as possible, but not later than the end of the first working day after the date on which the court or the courts' designee receives the defendant's request for appointment of counsel.

(d) An eligible indigent defendant is entitled to have the trial court appoint an attorney to represent him in the following appellate and post-conviction habeas corpus matters:

(1) an appeal to a court of appeals;

(2) an appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals if the appeal is made directly from the trial court or if a petition for discretionary review has been granted;

(3) a habeas corpus proceeding if the court concludes that the interests of justice require representation; and

(4) any other appellate proceeding if the court concludes that the interests of justice require representation.

(e) An appointed counsel is entitled to 10 days to prepare for a proceeding but may waive the preparation time with the consent of the defendant in writing or on the record in open court. If a non-indigent defendant appears without counsel at a proceeding after having been given a reasonable opportunity to retain counsel, the court, on 10 days' notice to the defendant of a dispositive setting, may proceed with the matter without securing a written waiver or appointing counsel. If an indigent defendant who has refused appointed counsel in order to retain private counsel appears without counsel after having been given an opportunity to retain counsel, the court, after giving the defendant a reasonable opportunity to request appointment of counsel or, if the defendant elects not to request appointment of counsel, after obtaining a waiver of the right to counsel pursuant to Subsections (f) and (g), may proceed with the matter on 10 days' notice to the defendant of a dispositive setting.

(f) A defendant may voluntarily and intelligently waive in writing the right to counsel. A waiver obtained in violation of Subsection (f-1) or (f-2) is presumed invalid.

(f-1) In any adversary judicial proceeding that may result in punishment by confinement, the attorney representing the state may not:

(1) initiate or encourage an attempt to obtain from a defendant who is not represented by counsel a waiver of the right to counsel; or

(2) communicate with a defendant who has requested the appointment of counsel, unless the court or the court's designee authorized under Article 26.04 to appoint counsel for indigent defendants in the county has denied the request and, subsequent to the denial, the defendant:

(A) has been given a reasonable opportunity to retain and has failed to retain private counsel; or

(B) waives or has waived the opportunity to retain private counsel.

(f-2) In any adversary judicial proceeding that may result in punishment by confinement, the court may not direct or encourage the defendant to communicate with the attorney representing the state until the court advises the defendant of the right to counsel and the procedure for requesting appointed counsel and the defendant has been given a reasonable opportunity to request appointed counsel. If the defendant has requested appointed counsel, the court may not direct or encourage the defendant to communicate with the attorney representing the state unless the court or the court's designee authorized under Article 26.04 to appoint counsel for indigent defendants in the county has denied the request and, subsequent to the denial, the defendant:

(1) has been given a reasonable opportunity to retain and has failed to retain private counsel; or

(2) waives or has waived the opportunity to retain private counsel.

(g) If a defendant wishes to waive the right to counsel for purposes of entering a guilty plea or proceeding to trial, the court shall advise the defendant of the nature of the charges against the defendant and, if the defendant is proceeding to trial, the dangers and disadvantages of self-representation. If the court determines that the waiver is voluntarily and intelligently made, the court shall provide the defendant with a statement substantially in the following form, which, if signed by the defendant, shall be filed with and become part of the record of the proceedings:

"I have been advised this _____ day of _____, 2____, by the (name of court) Court of my right to representation by counsel in the case pending against me. I have been further advised that if I am unable to afford counsel, one will be appointed for me free of charge. Understanding my right to have counsel appointed for me free of charge if I am not financially able to employ counsel, I wish to waive that right and request the court to proceed with my case without an attorney being appointed for me. I hereby waive my right to counsel. (signature of defendant)"

(h) A defendant may withdraw a waiver of the right to counsel at any time but is not entitled to repeat a proceeding previously held or waived solely on the grounds of the subsequent appointment or retention of counsel. If the defendant withdraws a waiver, the trial court, in its discretion, may provide the appointed counsel 10 days to prepare.

(i) Except as otherwise provided by this subsection, if an indigent defendant is entitled to and requests appointed counsel and if adversarial judicial proceedings have not been initiated against the defendant, a court or the courts' designee authorized under Article 26.04 to appoint counsel for indigent defendants in the county shall appoint counsel immediately following the expiration of three working days after the date on which the court or the courts' designee receives the defendant's request for appointment of counsel. If adversarial judicial proceedings are initiated against the defendant before the expiration of the three working days, the court or the courts' designee shall appoint counsel as provided by Subsection (c). In a county with a population of 250,000 or more, the court or the courts' designee shall appoint counsel as required by this subsection immediately following the expiration of one working day after the date on which the court or the courts' designee receives the defendant's request for appointment of counsel. If adversarial judicial proceedings are initiated against the defendant before the expiration of the one working day, the court or the courts' designee shall appoint counsel as provided by Subsection (c).

(j) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if an indigent defendant is released from custody prior to the appointment of counsel under this section, appointment of counsel is not required until the defendant's first court appearance or when adversarial judicial proceedings are initiated, whichever comes first.

(k) A court or the courts' designee may without unnecessary delay appoint new counsel to represent an indigent defendant for whom counsel is appointed under Subsection (c) or (i) if:

(1) the defendant is subsequently charged in the case with an offense different from the offense with which the defendant was initially charged; and

(2) good cause to appoint new counsel is stated on the record as required by Article 26.04(j)(2).

COMMENTARY: A defendant's right to counsel under Art. 1.051(c) and the Sixth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution must be affirmatively waived; waiver may not be implied from a defendant's failure to request counsel. If a defendant appears in court without counsel, the judge, before adversary judicial proceedings begin, must examine the defendant to determine if he is aware that he has a right to hire counsel and if he intends to do so. If the defendant is indigent and cannot hire an attorney himself, the judge must appoint counsel to represent the defendant before conducting any adversary judicial proceedings unless the defendant "knowingly and voluntarily relinquishes" his right to counsel. Oliver v. State, 872 S.W.2d 713, 716 (Tex. Crim. App. 1994).

"The primary goal of Art. 1.051(e) is to ensure that an indigent defendant is represented by counsel that is prepared for the proceeding." Marin v. State, 891 S.W.2d 267, 272 (Tex. Crim. App. 1994). When deciding if Art. 1.051(e) has been violated, courts focus on the actual preparation time and not the time between the formal appointment and the date of the proceeding. Id. at 270. The 10 days of preparation time may only be waived with the defendant's written consent or in open court. Id. at 269. Failure to satisfy Art. 1.051(e) may be raised on appeal without a previous objection. Id. at 268. Violations of Art. 1.051(e) may be subject to harm analysis. Matchett v. State, 941 S.W.2d 922, 928–29 (Tex. Crim. App. 1996) (superseded by statute, but reasoning followed in VanNortrick v. State, 227 S.W.3d 706, 709–710 (Tex. Crim. App. 2007)). If a defendant is re-indicted and the difference in indictments is negligible, counsel is not entitled to 10 additional days to prepare for the newer indictment. Marin, 891 S.W.2d at 271. If the defendant is represented by more than one attorney, Art. 1.051(e) is satisfied if at least one of the attorneys is given 10 days to prepare. Id.; Roney v. State, 632 S.W.2d 598, 601 (Tex. Crim. App. 1982). Similarly, if a defendant's only appointed attorney gets replaced with another appointed attorney, the new attorney must be given 10 days to prepare for the proceeding. Marin, 891 S.W.2d at 272.

Contempt proceedings may result in the deprivation of a defendant's liberty; therefore, trial courts have a duty to inform defendants of their rights to representation of counsel in a contempt proceeding. Ex parte Gonzales, 945 S.W.2d 830, 836–37 (Tex. Crim. App. 1997).

The right to counsel guaranteed by the Sixth Amendment and Art. 1.051 does not attach prior to the initiation of adversarial judicial proceedings. United States v. Gouveia, 467 U.S. 180, 188 (1984); accord Kirby v. Illinois, 406 U.S. 682, 688–9 (1972); Forte v. State, 707 S.W.2d 89, 91 (Tex. Crim. App. 1986). The Supreme Court has since stated that a "defendant's initial appearance before a judicial officer, where he learns the charge against him and his liberty is subject to restriction, marks the start of adversary judicial proceedings" Rothgery v. Gillespie County, 554 U.S. 191, 213 (2008). In Rothgery, the Court held that an Art. 15.17 hearing qualifies as an initiation of adversarial judicial proceedings and signals attachment. Id. at 212. Police may still interrogate defendants after the right to counsel attaches as long as the officers first read the accused their Miranda rights and obtain a waiver of counsel as permitted under Miranda. Montejo v. Louisiana, 566 U.S. 788 (2009) (overruling Michigan v. Jackson, 475 U.S. 625, which forbade police to initiate interrogation of a criminal defendant once he had invoked his right to counsel at an arraignment or similar proceeding). There is a distinction between the Sixth Amendment right to trial counsel and the Fifth Amendment right to interrogation counsel; the time for a defendant to assert his Fifth Amendment right to counsel for purposes of custodial interrogation is “[w]hen the police or other law enforcement agents approach a defendant and give him his Miranda warnings.” Pecina v. State, 361 S.W.3d 68, 78 (Tex. Crim. App. 2012); Montejo, 566 U.S. 788.

Even after the initiation of adversarial judicial proceedings, the right to counsel attaches only at “critical stages” of adversary judicial proceedings. See Forte v. State, 759 S.W.2d 128 (Tex. Crim. App. 1986); Green v. State, 872 S.W.2d 717, 720 (Tex. Crim. App. 1994). “Critical stages” have been defined as “proceedings between an individual and agents of the State (whether “formal or informal, in court or out,”) that amount to “trial-like confrontations,” at which counsel would help the accused “in coping with legal problems or . . . meeting his adversary.” Rothgery, 554 U.S. at 212 (quoting United States v. Wade, 388 U.S. 218, 226 (1967); United States v. Ash, 413 U.S. 300, 312–13 (1973)).

The Supreme Court has ruled that a preliminary hearing is a “critical stage” when the hearing allowed the defendant to confront and cross-examine prosecution witnesses. Gerstein v. Pugh, 420 U.S. 103, 122–23 (1975) (discussing the Court’s reasoning in Coleman v. Alabama, 399 U.S. 1 (1970)). The Court of Criminal Appeals has also cited Gerstein in determining that an examining trial in Texas is “arguably a critical stage” since it is adversarial in nature. Green, 872 S.W.2d at 721. But, the Court has held that a preliminary hearing that was non-adversarial does not count as a “critical stage” even if probable cause is being determined. Gerstein, 420 U.S. at 122. Also, in Green, the Court of Criminal Appeals held that a preliminary initial appearance is not a critical stage because: (1) the defendant was neither required nor asked to plea; (2) the probable cause determination was non-adversarial; (3) an examining trial was not held during that time; and (4) bail was not set. 872 S.W.2d at 721–22.

When counsel did not inform a defendant of the deportation consequence of his guilty plea, the Supreme Court held that the defendant received ineffective assistance of counsel. Padilla v. Kentucky, 130 S. Ct. 1473, 1482 (2010). In its decision, the Court made it clear that plea negotiations are considered “critical stages” of criminal proceedings for the purposes of the Sixth Amendment right to effective counsel. Id. at 1486. In two recent decisions, the Court expressly held that the Sixth Amendment right to a fair trial extends beyond the trial itself and into pretrial critical stages, including the plea-bargaining process. Laffler v. Cooper, 132 S. Ct. 1376 (2012); see Missouri v. Frye, 132 S. Ct. 1399, 1408 (2012) (holding that “defense counsel has the duty to communicate formal offers from the prosecution to accept a plea on terms and conditions that may be favorable to the accused” in order to meet the Constitutional requirement of effective assistance).

In Wade, the Supreme Court ruled that a post-indictment lineup where the accused is physically present is a “critical stage” of prosecution because the confrontation between the accused and victims and witnesses involves dangers and factors “which might seriously . . . derogate from a fair trial.” 388 U.S. at 236–37. The Court, however, held that a post-indictment photographic display where the accused is not physically present is not a “critical stage” since the accused is not present and the setting is not adversarial. Ash, 413 U.S. at 317, 321.

The Court also clarified in Wade that the Government’s scientific analysis of the accused’s fingerprints, blood sample, clothing, hair, and other specimens are not “critical stages” due to the wide availability of knowledge of the scientific techniques and technology. 388 U.S. at 227. Because of this knowledge, the accused can meaningfully confront the Government’s case at trial. Id. at 228.

An accused’s decision on whether or not to submit to a breath test is not a “critical stage” that requires the assistance of counsel. McCambridge v. State, 778 S.W.2d 70, 72 (Tex.

Crim. App. 1989) (quoting Forte v. State, 759 S.W.2d 128, 139 (Tex. Crim. App. 1988).

When appointing counsel, the court is under no obligation to search for an attorney that the defendant finds agreeable. Webb v. State, 533 S.W.2d 780, 784 (Tex. Crim. App. 1976) (citing Viges v. State, 508 S.W.2d 76, 77 (Tex. Crim. App. 1974)). The accused carries the burden of proof in showing that he is entitled to a change of appointed counsel if he so desires. Id. (citing King v. State, 511 S.W.2d 32, 34 (Tex. Crim. App. 1974)). The accused does not have an absolute right to a change of counsel on the day of trial. Id. If the accused does request a change of counsel on the date of trial, the court (1) may appoint or allow the accused to retain new counsel; (2) must allow the accused to represent himself if the court denies the accused's request and the accused asserts his right to self-representation even after a proper admonishment from the court; or (3) may compel the accused that does not waive the right to counsel and does not assert his right to self-representation to proceed with the attorney representing the accused. Burgess v. State, 816 S.W.2d 424, 428–29 (Tex. Crim. App. 1991).

Trial courts may not force defendants to accept appointed counsel if they knowingly and intelligently waive representation and choose to defend themselves. Faretta v. California, 422 U.S. 806, 814 (1975); see also Webb, 533 S.W.2d at 783. The State, however, may appoint “standby counsel” to be available to assist a defendant, even over the defendant’s objection, in “overcoming routine procedural or evidentiary obstacles . . . such as introducing evidence or objecting to testimony.” McKaskle v. Wiggins, 465 U.S. 168, 183 (1984); see also Webb, 533 S.W.2d at 784 (quoting Faretta, 422 U.S. at 834).

In order for a defendant to represent himself at trial, the defendant must “knowingly and intelligently” waive his right to counsel. Faretta, 422 U.S. at 835; accord Webb, 533 at 783. See also Heckman v. Williamson County, 369 S.W.3d 137, 159 (Tex. 2012) (holding that when a defendant is “simultaneously misinformed . . . of his right to counsel and denied his request for court-appointed counsel, yet encouraged . . . to do certain acts [to represent himself],” such actions support a claim asserting a violation of his right to self-representation). This waiver does not have to be in writing. Burgess, 816 S.W.2d at 430. When a defendant asserts his right to self-representation, the trial court must determine that he fully understands the consequences of waiving his right to representation of counsel by warning and making the defendant aware of “the dangers and disadvantages of self-representation.” Faretta, 422 U.S. at 835; accord Burton v. State, 634 S.W.2d 692, 694 (Tex. Crim. App. 1982); Webb, 533 S.W.2d at 785. Furthermore, the trial judge must inform defendants that “there are technical rules of evidence and procedure” and that the defendants will not be given special consideration because they asserted their pro se rights. Williams v. State, 252 S.W.3d 353, 356 (Tex. Crim. App. 2008) (quoting Johnson v. State, 760 S.W.2d 277, 279 (Tex. Crim. App. 1988)). In determining a defendant’s ability to represent himself, the trial court should not look at whether the defendant “could show ‘some skill or expertise,’” but rather at the defendant’s background, age, experience, and education. Burton, 634 S.W.2d at 694 (citing Faretta, 422 U.S. at 835). The trial court may also take into account a defendant’s mental capacity by “asking whether a defendant who seeks to conduct his own defense at trial is mentally competent to do so.” Indiana v. Edwards, 554 U.S. 164, 177–78 (2008).

It is unlikely that a court would invalidate Art. 1.051(c) on equal protection grounds because the distinction between indigent persons in populous and less populous counties is subject only to a rational basis test, and “the legislature could have reasonably decided that more populous counties have more attorneys and other resources necessary to allow the appointment of counsel for an indigent criminal defendant in a shorter period of time than less populous counties with fewer resources.” Op. Tex. Att’y Gen. JC-0549 (2002). Moreover, the “indigency standard will necessarily vary in different counties due to varying incomes and cost of living measures in the counties.” Id.

CHAPTER 11. HABEAS CORPUS

Art. 11.071. PROCEDURE IN DEATH PENALTY CASE.

Sec. 1. APPLICATION TO DEATH PENALTY CASE.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, this article establishes the procedures for an application for a writ of habeas corpus in which the applicant seeks relief from a judgment imposing a penalty of death.

Sec. 2. REPRESENTATION BY COUNSEL.

(a) An applicant shall be represented by competent counsel unless the applicant has elected to proceed pro se and the convicting trial court finds, after a hearing on the record, that the applicant's election is intelligent and voluntary.

(b) If a defendant is sentenced to death the convicting court, immediately after judgment is entered under Article 42.01, shall determine if the defendant is indigent and, if so, whether the defendant desires appointment of counsel for the purpose of a writ of habeas corpus. If the defendant desires appointment of counsel for the purpose of a writ of habeas corpus, the court shall appoint the office of capital writs to represent the defendant as provided by Subsection (c).

(c) At the earliest practical time, but in no event later than 30 days, after the convicting court makes the findings required under Subsections (a) and (b), the convicting court shall appoint the office of capital writs or, if the office of capital writs does not accept or is prohibited from accepting an appointment under Section 78.054, Government Code, other competent counsel under Subsection (f), unless the applicant elects to proceed pro se or is represented by retained counsel. On appointing counsel under this section, the convicting court shall immediately notify the court of criminal appeals of the appointment, including in the notice a copy of the judgment and the name, address, and telephone number of the appointed counsel.

(d) The court of criminal appeals shall adopt rules for the appointment of attorneys as counsel under this section and the convicting court may appoint an attorney as counsel under this section only if the appointment is approved by the court of criminal appeals in any manner provided by those rules. The rules must require that an attorney appointed as lead counsel under this section not have been found by a federal or state court to have rendered ineffective assistance of counsel during the trial or appeal of any capital case.

(e) If the court of criminal appeals denies an applicant relief under this article, an attorney appointed under this section to represent the applicant shall, not later than the 15th day after the date the court of criminal appeals denies relief or, if the case is filed and set for submission, the 15th day after the date the court of criminal appeals issues a mandate on the initial application for a writ of habeas corpus under this article, move for the appointment of counsel in federal habeas review under 18 U.S.C. Section 3599. The attorney shall immediately file a copy of the motion with the court of criminal appeals, and if the attorney fails to do so, the court may take any action to ensure that the applicant's right to federal habeas review is protected, including initiating contempt proceedings against the attorney.

(f) If the office of capital writs does not accept or is prohibited from accepting an appointment under Section 78.054, Government Code, the convicting court shall appoint counsel from a list of competent counsel maintained by the presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions under Section 78.056, Government Code. The convicting court shall reasonably compensate as provided by Section 2A an attorney appointed under this section, other than an attorney employed by the office of capital writs, regardless of whether the attorney is appointed by the convicting court or was appointed by the court of criminal appeals under prior law. An attorney appointed under this section who is employed by the office of capital writs shall be compensated in accordance with Subchapter B, Chapter 78, Government Code.

Sec. 2A. STATE REIMBURSEMENT; COUNTY OBLIGATION.

(a) The state shall reimburse a county for compensation of counsel under Section 2, other than for compensation of counsel employed by the office of capital writs, and for payment of expenses under Section 3, regardless of whether counsel is employed by the office of capital writs. The total amount of reimbursement to which a county is entitled under this section for an application under this article may not exceed $25,000. Compensation and expenses in excess of the $25,000 reimbursement provided by the state are the obligation of the county.

(b) A convicting court seeking reimbursement for a county shall certify to the comptroller of public accounts the amount of compensation that the county is entitled to receive under this section. The comptroller of public accounts shall issue a warrant to the county in the amount certified by the convicting court, not to exceed $25,000.

(c) The limitation imposed by this section on the reimbursement by the state to a county for compensation of counsel and payment of reasonable expenses does not prohibit a county from compensating counsel and reimbursing expenses in an amount that is in excess of the amount the county receives from the state as reimbursement, and a county is specifically granted discretion by this subsection to make payments in excess of the state reimbursement.

(d) The comptroller shall reimburse a county for the compensation and payment of expenses of an attorney appointed by the court of criminal appeals under prior law. A convicting court seeking reimbursement for a county as permitted by this subsection shall certify the amount the county is entitled to receive under this subsection for an application filed under this article, not to exceed a total amount of $25,000.

Sec. 3. INVESTIGATION OF GROUNDS FOR APPLICATION.

(a) On appointment, counsel shall investigate expeditiously, before and after the appellate record is filed in the court of criminal appeals, the factual and legal grounds for the filing of an application for a writ of habeas corpus.

(b) Not later than the 30th day before the date the application for a writ of habeas corpus is filed with the convicting court, counsel may file with the convicting court an ex parte, verified, and confidential request for prepayment of expenses, including expert fees, to investigate and present potential habeas corpus claims. The request for expenses must state:

(1) the claims of the application to be investigated;

(2) specific facts that suggest that a claim of possible merit may exist; and

(3) an itemized list of anticipated expenses for each claim.

(c) The court shall grant a request for expenses in whole or in part if the request for expenses is timely and reasonable. If the court denies in whole or in part the request for expenses, the court shall briefly state the reasons for the denial in a written order provided to the applicant.

(d) Counsel may incur expenses for habeas corpus investigation, including expenses for experts, without prior approval by the convicting court or the court of criminal appeals. On presentation of a claim for reimbursement, which may be presented ex parte, the convicting court shall order reimbursement of counsel for expenses, if the expenses are reasonably necessary and reasonably incurred. If the convicting court denies in whole or in part the request for expenses, the court shall briefly state the reasons for the denial in a written order provided to the applicant. The applicant may request reconsideration of the denial for reimbursement by the convicting court.

(e) Materials submitted to the court under this section are a part of the court's record.

(f) This section applies to counsel's investigation of the factual and legal grounds for the filing of an application for a writ of habeas corpus, regardless of whether counsel is employed by the office of capital writs.

Sec. 4. FILING OF APPLICATION.

(a) An application for a writ of habeas corpus, returnable to the court of criminal appeals, must be filed in the convicting court not later than the 180th day after the date the convicting court appoints counsel under Section 2 or not later than the 45th day after the date the state's original brief is filed on direct appeal with the court of criminal appeals, whichever date is later.

(b) The convicting court, before the filing date that is applicable to the applicant under Subsection (a), may for good cause shown and after notice and an opportunity to be heard by the attorney representing the state grant one 90-day extension that begins on the filing date applicable to the defendant under Subsection (a). Either party may request that the court hold a hearing on the request. If the convicting court finds that the applicant cannot establish good cause justifying the requested extension, the court shall make a finding stating that fact and deny the request for the extension.

(c) An application filed after the filing date that is applicable to the applicant under Subsection (a) or (b) is untimely.

(d) If the convicting court receives an untimely application or determines that after the filing date that is applicable to the applicant under Subsection (a) or (b) no application has been filed, the convicting court immediately, but in any event within 10 days, shall send to the court of criminal appeals and to the attorney representing the state:

(1) a copy of the untimely application, with a statement of the convicting court that the application is untimely, or a statement of the convicting court that no application has been filed within the time periods required by Subsections (a) and (b); and

(2) any order the judge of the convicting court determines should be attached to an untimely application or statement under Subdivision (1).

(e) A failure to file an application before the filing date applicable to the applicant under Subsection (a) or (b) constitutes a waiver of all grounds for relief that were available to the applicant before the last date on which an application could be timely filed, except as provided by Section 4A.

Sec. 4A. UNTIMELY APPLICATION; APPLICATION NOT FILED.

(a) On command of the court of criminal appeals, a counsel who files an untimely application or fails to file an application before the filing date applicable under Section 4(a) or (b) shall show cause as to why the application was untimely filed or not filed before the filing date.

(b) At the conclusion of the counsel's presentation to the court of criminal appeals, the court may:

(1) find that good cause has not been shown and dismiss the application;

(2) permit the counsel to continue representation of the applicant and establish a new filing date for the application, which may be not more than 180 days from the date the court permits the counsel to continue representation; or

(3) appoint new counsel to represent the applicant and establish a new filing date for the application, which may be not more than 270 days after the date the court appoints new counsel.

(c) The court of criminal appeals may hold in contempt counsel who files an untimely application or fails to file an application before the date required by Section 4(a) or (b). The court of criminal appeals may punish as a separate instance of contempt each day after the first day on which the counsel fails to timely file the application. In addition to or in lieu of holding counsel in contempt, the court of criminal appeals may enter an order denying counsel compensation under Section 2A.

(d) If the court of criminal appeals establishes a new filing date for the application, the court of criminal appeals shall notify the convicting court of that fact and the convicting court shall proceed under this article.

(e) Sections 2A and 3 apply to compensation and reimbursement of counsel appointed under Subsection (b)(3) in the same manner as if counsel had been appointed by the convicting court, unless the attorney is employed by the office of capital writs, in which case the compensation of the attorney is governed by Subchapter B, Chapter 78, Government Code.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the court of criminal appeals shall appoint counsel and establish a new filing date for application, which may be no later than the 270th day after the date on which counsel is appointed, for each applicant who before September 1, 1999, filed an untimely application or failed to file an application before the date required by Section 4(a) or (b). Section 2A applies to the compensation and payment of expenses of counsel appointed by the court of criminal appeals under this subsection, unless the attorney is employed by the office of capital writs, in which case the compensation of that attorney is governed by Subchapter B, Chapter 78, Government Code.

Sec. 5. SUBSEQUENT APPLICATION.

(a) If a subsequent application for a writ of habeas corpus is filed after filing an initial application, a court may not consider the merits of or grant relief based on the subsequent application unless the application contains sufficient specific facts establishing that:

(1) the current claims and issues have not been and could not have been presented previously in a timely initial application or in a previously considered application filed under this article or Article 11.07 because the factual or legal basis for the claim was unavailable on the date the applicant filed the previous application;

(2) by a preponderance of the evidence, but for a violation of the United States Constitution no rational juror could have found the applicant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt; or

(3) by clear and convincing evidence, but for a violation of the United States Constitution no rational juror would have answered in the state's favor one or more of the special issues that were submitted to the jury in the applicant's trial under Article 37.071, 37.0711, or 37.072.

(b) If the convicting court receives a subsequent application, the clerk of the court shall:

(1) attach a notation that the application is a subsequent application;

(2) assign to the case a file number that is ancillary to that of the conviction being challenged; and

(3) immediately send to the court of criminal appeals a copy of:

(A) the application;

(B) the notation;

(C) the order scheduling the applicant's execution, if scheduled; and

(D) any order the judge of the convicting court directs to be attached to the application.

(c) On receipt of the copies of the documents from the clerk, the court of criminal appeals shall determine whether the requirements of Subsection (a) have been satisfied. The convicting court may not take further action on the application before the court of criminal appeals issues an order finding that the requirements have been satisfied. If the court of criminal appeals determines that the requirements have not been satisfied, the court shall issue an order dismissing the application as an abuse of the writ under this section.

(d) For purposes of Subsection (a)(1), a legal basis of a claim is unavailable on or before a date described by Subsection (a)(1) if the legal basis was not recognized by or could not have been reasonably formulated from a final decision of the United States Supreme Court, a court of appeals of the United States, or a court of appellate jurisdiction of this state on or before that date.

(e) For purposes of Subsection (a)(1), a factual basis of a claim is unavailable on or before a date described by Subsection (a)(1) if the factual basis was not ascertainable through the exercise of reasonable diligence on or before that date.

(f) If an amended or supplemental application is not filed within the time specified under Section 4(a) or (b), the court shall treat the application as a subsequent application under this section.

Sec. 6. ISSUANCE OF WRIT.

(a) If a timely application for a writ of habeas corpus is filed in the convicting court, a writ of habeas corpus, returnable to the court of criminal appeals, shall issue by operation of law.

(b) If the convicting court receives notice that the requirements of Section 5 for consideration of a subsequent application have been met, a writ of habeas corpus, returnable to the court of criminal appeals, shall issue by operation of law.

(b-1) If the convicting court receives notice that the requirements of Section 5(a) for consideration of a subsequent application have been met and if the applicant has not elected to proceed pro se and is not represented by retained counsel, the convicting court shall appoint, in order of priority:

(1) the attorney who represented the applicant in the proceedings under Section 5, if the attorney seeks the appointment;

(2) the office of capital writs, if the office represented the applicant in the proceedings under Section 5 or otherwise accepts the appointment; or

(3) counsel from a list of competent counsel maintained by the presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions under Section 78.056, Government Code, if the office of capital writs:

(A) did not represent the applicant as described by Subdivision (2); or

(B) does not accept or is prohibited from accepting the appointment under Section 78.054, Government Code.

(b-2) Regardless of whether the subsequent application is ultimately dismissed, compensation and reimbursement of expenses for counsel appointed under Subsection (b-1) shall be provided as described by Section 2, 2A, or 3, including compensation for time previously spent and reimbursement of expenses previously incurred with respect to the subsequent application.

(c) The clerk of the convicting court shall:

(1) make an appropriate notation that a writ of habeas corpus was issued;

(2) assign to the case a file number that is ancillary to that of the conviction being challenged; and

(3) send a copy of the application by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by secure electronic mail to the attorney representing the state in that court.

(d) The clerk of the convicting court shall promptly deliver copies of documents submitted to the clerk under this article to the applicant and the attorney representing the state.

Sec. 7. ANSWER TO APPLICATION.

(a) The state shall file an answer to the application for a writ of habeas corpus not later than the 120th day after the date the state receives notice of issuance of the writ. The state shall serve the answer on counsel for the applicant or, if the applicant is proceeding pro se, on the applicant. The state may request from the convicting court an extension of time in which to answer the application by showing particularized justifying circumstances for the extension, but in no event may the court permit the state to file an answer later than the 180th day after the date the state receives notice of issuance of the writ.

(b) Matters alleged in the application not admitted by the state are deemed denied.

Sec. 8. FINDINGS OF FACT WITHOUT EVIDENTIARY HEARING.

(a) Not later than the 20th day after the last date the state answers the application, the convicting court shall determine whether controverted, previously unresolved factual issues material to the legality of the applicant's confinement exist and shall issue a written order of the determination.

(b) If the convicting court determines the issues do not exist, the parties shall file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law for the court to consider on or before a date set by the court that is not later than the 30th day after the date the order is issued.

(c) After argument of counsel, if requested by the court, the convicting court shall make appropriate written findings of fact and conclusions of law not later than the 15th day after the date the parties filed proposed findings or not later than the 45th day after the date the court's determination is made under Subsection (a), whichever occurs first.

(d) The clerk of the court shall immediately send to:

(1) the court of criminal appeals a copy of the:

(A) application;

(B) answer;

(C) orders entered by the convicting court;

(D) proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law; and

(E) findings of fact and conclusions of law entered by the court; and

(2) counsel for the applicant or, if the applicant is proceeding pro se, to the applicant, a copy of:

(A) orders entered by the convicting court;

(B) proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law; and

(C) findings of fact and conclusions of law entered by the court.

Sec. 9. HEARING.

(a) If the convicting court determines that controverted, previously unresolved factual issues material to the legality of the applicant's confinement exist, the court shall enter an order, not later than the 20th day after the last date the state answers the application, designating the issues of fact to be resolved and the manner in which the issues shall be resolved. To resolve the issues, the court may require affidavits, depositions, interrogatories, and evidentiary hearings and may use personal recollection.

(b) The convicting court shall hold the evidentiary hearing not later than the 30th day after the date on which the court enters the order designating issues under Subsection (a). The convicting court may grant a motion to postpone the hearing, but not for more than 30 days, and only if the court states, on the record, good cause for delay.

(c) The presiding judge of the convicting court shall conduct a hearing held under this section unless another judge presided over the original capital felony trial, in which event that judge, if qualified for assignment under Section 74.054 or 74.055, Government Code, may preside over the hearing.

(d) The court reporter shall prepare a transcript of the hearing not later than the 30th day after the date the hearing ends and file the transcript with the clerk of the convicting court.

(e) The parties shall file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law for the convicting court to consider on or before a date set by the court that is not later than the 30th day after the date the transcript is filed. If the court requests argument of counsel, after argument the court shall make written findings of fact that are necessary to resolve the previously unresolved facts and make conclusions of law not later than the 15th day after the date the parties file proposed findings or not later than the 45th day after the date the court reporter files the transcript, whichever occurs first.

(f) The clerk of the convicting court shall immediately transmit to:

(1) the court of criminal appeals a copy of:

(A) the application;

(B) the answers and motions filed;

(C) the court reporter's transcript;

(D) the documentary exhibits introduced into evidence;

(E) the proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law;

(F) the findings of fact and conclusions of law entered by the court;

(G) the sealed materials such as a confidential request for investigative expenses; and

(H) any other matters used by the convicting court in resolving issues of fact; and

(2) counsel for the applicant or, if the applicant is proceeding pro se, to the applicant, a copy of:

(A) orders entered by the convicting court;

(B) proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law; and

(C) findings of fact and conclusions of law entered by the court.

(g) The clerk of the convicting court shall forward an exhibit that is not documentary to the court of criminal appeals on request of the court.

Sec. 10. RULES OF EVIDENCE.

The Texas Rules of Criminal Evidence apply to a hearing held under this article.

Sec. 11. REVIEW BY COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS.

The court of criminal appeals shall expeditiously review all applications for a writ of habeas corpus submitted under this article. The court may set the cause for oral argument and may request further briefing of the issues by the applicant or the state. After reviewing the record, the court shall enter its judgment remanding the applicant to custody or ordering the applicant's release, as the law and facts may justify.

Effective date: 9/1/13

2013 LEGISLATIVE NOTE: HB 354 adds the phrase, "or by secure electronic mail," to section (6), subsection (c). This amendment provides an additional means of conveying the application for writ of habeas corpus to the attorney representing the state in the convicting court.

COMMENTARY: There is no federal or state constitutional right to counsel for writs of habeas corpus. Ex parte Graves, 70 S.W.3d 103, 111 (Tex. Crim. App. 2002) (citing Pennsylvania v. Finley, 481 U.S. 551, 555 (1987)). So, it follows that there is no constitutional right to have effective counsel for habeas proceedings; however, "the Habeas Corpus Reform Act of 1995 created a statutory right to 'competent' counsel in habeas proceedings." Id. at 111, 113.

Since competency of prior habeas counsel is not a cognizable issue for habeas corpus review, claims that previous habeas counsel was not “competent” cannot fulfill the requirements of Art. 11.071 Sec. 5 for a subsequent writ. Id. at 104-105. If an applicant brings such a complaint, the Court of Criminal Appeals can dismiss the writ under Art. 11.071 Sec 5(c) as an abuse of the writ. Id. at 105.

In Texas, the competency of counsel in habeas proceedings is determined by the counsel’s qualifications, experience, and abilities at the initial appointment of counsel and not by the final product of representation. Id. at 114; accord Ries v. Quarterman, 522 F.3d 517, 526 (5th Cir. 2008). In Ex parte Graves, the Court of Criminal Appeals stated that allowing claims of ineffective assistance of the previous counsel in habeas proceedings would create endless and repetitious writs. 70 S.W.3d at 115.

The United States and Texas Constitutions do not provide a right to counsel in post-conviction habeas corpus proceedings. Ex parte Mines, 26 S.W.3d 910, 912-913 (Tex. Crim. App. 2000). Furthermore, a habeas applicant need not be competent to assist habeas counsel. Id. at 914-915.

“State and federal courts share concurrent habeas corpus jurisdiction to review the constitutional legitimacy of a conviction or death sentence obtained in state court.” Ex parte Moreno, 245 S.W.3d 419, 428 (Tex. Crim. App. 2008).

Applicants may not have their subsequent writs considered by state courts unless they show newly available facts or law that was not available for their previous writ. Ex parte Hood, 304 S.W.3d 397, 406 (Tex. Crim. App. 2007). If the claims involve previously available law or facts, the court is required by statute to dismiss the application as an abuse of writ. Id.; accord Emery v. Johnson, 139 F.3d 191, 195 (5th Cir. 1997). “Federal courts may grant applicants’ claims only if [the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals] has clearly misapplied established federal law.” Ex parte Hood, 304 S.W.3d at 406.

A medical examiner’s indication that scientific research conducted after he testified in the habeas applicant’s murder trial would have prevented him from being able to determine with a reasonable degree of medical certainty the cause of death of the victim was enough to satisfy the requirements of Section 5(a). See Ex parte Henderson, 246 S.W.3d 690, 692 (Tex. Crim. App. 2007).

Section 5(a)’s abuse of writ provision has been viewed as an “adequate and independent” procedural ground for procedural default purposes in federal courts. Aguilar v. Dretke, 428 F.3d 526, 533 (5th Cir. 2005). Federal courts will not apply the procedural default unless the last state court to consider the claim “‘clearly and expressly’ relied on an independent and adequate state ground.” Ex parte Emery, 139 F.3d 191 at 195 (citing Coleman v. Thompson, 501 U.S. 722, 735 (1991)). If the procedural default applies, federal habeas review of the claim is barred unless the applicant “can demonstrate cause for the default and actual prejudice as a result of the alleged violation of federal law, or demonstrate that failure to consider the claims will result in a fundamental miscarriage of justice.” Ex parte Aguilar, 428 F.3d at 532–33 (5th Cir. 2005) (quoting Coleman, 501 U.S. at 750).

The court evaluates the old and new evidence regardless of whether it would be admitted under the rules of evidence at trial. Ex parte Reed, 271 S.W.3d at 733–34 (quoting House v. Bell, 547 U.S. 518, 537-38 (2006)). The court, taking the new record and witness credibility into account, then decides how reasonable jurors would decide. Id. (quoting House, 547 U.S. at 538–39).

In habeas proceedings where applicants raise an Atkins claim that they are mentally retarded and cannot be executed, the applicants bear the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, that they are mentally retarded. Ex parte Briseno, 135 S.W.3d 1, 12 (Tex. Crim. App. 2001).

Applicants that file late, after relying in good faith on a mistaken calculation of a deadline by a court, may still have their petitions considered. Ex parte Ramos, 977 S.W.2d 616, 617 (Tex. Crim. App. 1998). An application for an extension of a habeas deadline must be filed and ruled on before the original deadline. Ex parte Reynoso, 257 S.W.3d 715, 720 (Tex. Crim. App. 2008). If the original deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, the applicant may file the habeas writ on the next business day. Id. at 722. But, applicants that were granted an extension must file the habeas writ on the actual date of deadline, whether or not it falls on a weekend or holiday. Id.

A defendant is not entitled to have a jury decide the question of mental retardation. See Ex parte Lewis, 223 S.W.3d 372, 373 (Tex. Crim. App. 2006). If, however, a jury does decide the issue, the same jury from the guilt/innocence phase may determine whether a defendant is mentally retarded. Neil v. State, 256 S.W.3d 264, 272 (Tex. Crim. App. 2008).

Art. 11.071 does not contain any provisions for pre-writ discovery. Since courts have no jurisdiction over post-conviction matters until an application for writ of habeas corpus is filed, the courts have no jurisdiction to order discovery before an application is filed. Ex parte Lockhart, 868 S.W.2d 346, 347 (Tex. Crim. App. 1993); State ex rel. Vance v. Hatten, 508 S.W.2d 625, 628 (Tex. Crim. App. 1974).

A defendant's right to discovery is generally limited to information that is exculpatory, material, admissible, in the possession of the State, and unknown to the defendant. See Inness v. State, 606 S.W.2d 306, 313 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980); see also Cooks v. State, 844 S.W.2d 697, 737 (Tex. Crim. App. 1992); see also Havard v. State, 800 S.W.2d 195, 204 (Tex. Crim. App. 1989). Primary resources of law authorizing discovery in habeas proceedings are: 1) the due process clause of the 14th Amendment; 2) Art. 11.071 Sections 3 and 9; 3) Ch. 39, Code of Criminal Procedure; 4) the Public Information Act, Government Code Ch. 552; and 5) the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. Section 552.

Late filing of a habeas corpus application in a death penalty case "is permitted only if the claims could not have been presented timely or if there was a violation of the United States Constitution, but for which the applicant would not have been found guilty or sentenced to death." Ex parte Smith, 977 S.W.2d 610, 611 (Tex. Crim. App. 1998).

CHAPTER 14. ARREST WITHOUT WARRANT

Art. 14.06. MUST TAKE OFFENDER BEFORE MAGISTRATE.

(a) Except as otherwise provided by this article, in each case enumerated in this Code, the person making the arrest or the person having custody of the person arrested shall take the person arrested or have him taken without unnecessary delay, but not later than 48 hours after the person is arrested, before the magistrate who may have ordered the arrest, before some magistrate of the county where the arrest was made without an order, or, to provide more expeditiously to the person arrested the warnings described by Article 15.17 of this Code, before a magistrate in any other county of this state. The magistrate shall immediately perform the duties described in Article 15.17 of this Code.

(b) A peace officer who is charging a person, including a child, with committing an offense that is a Class C misdemeanor, other than an offense under Section 49.02, Penal Code, may, instead of taking the person before a magistrate, issue a citation to the person that contains written notice of the time and place the person must appear before a magistrate, the name and address of the person charged, the offense charged, and the following admonishment, in boldfaced or underlined type or in capital letters:

"If you are convicted of a misdemeanor offense involving violence where you are or were a spouse, intimate partner, parent, or guardian of the victim or are or were involved in another, similar relationship with the victim, it may be unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a handgun or long gun, or ammunition, pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g)(9) or Section 46.04(b), Texas Penal Code. If you have any questions whether these laws make it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm, you should consult an attorney."

(c) If the person resides in the county where the offense occurred, a peace officer who is charging a person with committing an offense that is a Class A or B misdemeanor may, instead of taking the person before a magistrate, issue a citation to the person that contains written notice of the time and place the person must appear before a magistrate of this state as described by Subsection (a), the name and address of the person charged, and the offense charged.

(d) Subsection (c) applies only to a person charged with committing an offense under:

(1) Section 481.121, Health and Safety Code, if the offense is punishable under Subsection (b)(1) or (2) of that section;

(1-a) Section 481.1161, Health and Safety Code, if the offense is punishable under Subsection (b)(1) or (2) of that section;

(2) Section 28.03, Penal Code, if the offense is punishable under Subsection (b)(2) of that section;

(3) Section 28.08, Penal Code, if the offense is punishable under Subsection (b)(1) of that section;

(4) Section 31.03, Penal Code, if the offense is punishable under Subsection (e)(2)(A) of that section;

(5) Section 31.04, Penal Code, if the offense is punishable under Subsection (e)(2) of that section;

(6) Section 38.114, Penal Code, if the offense is punishable as a Class B misdemeanor; or

(7) Section 521.457, Transportation Code.

COMMENTARY: The Fourth Amendment requires a prompt “judicial determination of probable cause as a prerequisite to extended restraint on liberty following arrest” without warrant. Gerstein v. Pugh, 420 U.S. 103, 114 (1975). Generally, states must make such determinations within 48 hours of arrest. County of Riverside v. McLaughlin, 500 U.S. 44, 52 (1991).

“Absent a showing of a causal connection between failing to take an accused before a magistrate and the accused’s confession,” neglecting to take the accused before a magistrate without unnecessary delay does not invalidate a voluntary confession if the accused received his Miranda rights. Boyd v. State, 811 S.W.2d 105, 124-125 (Tex. Crim. App. 1991). According to Webb v. Beto, “the defendant has the burden to show that under Texas law, a delay in the arraignment process renders a confession acquired during the delay inadmissible as a matter of law.” 415 F.2d 433, 436 (5th Cir. 1969), cert. denied, 396 U.S. 1019 (1970).

Since the purpose of the Article is to allow the magistrate to give the accused the warnings and discharge the duties required by Article 15.17, which is not a prerequisite to the search of the accused, a violation of this Article does not invalidate a search made incident to a lawful arrest. Corbin v. State, 426 S.W.2d 238, 240 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968).

CHAPTER 15. ARREST UNDER WARRANT

Art. 15.17. DUTIES OF ARRESTING OFFICER AND MAGISTRATE.

(a) In each case enumerated in this Code, the person making the arrest or the person having custody of the person arrested shall without unnecessary delay, but not later than 48 hours after the person is arrested, take the person arrested or have him taken before some magistrate of the county where the accused was arrested or, to provide more expeditiously to the person arrested the warnings described by this article, before a magistrate in any other county of this state. The arrested person may be taken before the magistrate in person or the image of the arrested person may be presented to the magistrate by means of an electronic broadcast system. The magistrate shall inform in clear language the person arrested, either in person or through the electronic broadcast system, of the accusation against him and of any affidavit filed therewith, of his right to retain counsel, of his right to remain silent, of his right to have an attorney present during any interview with peace officers or attorneys representing the state, of his right to terminate the interview at any time, and of his right to have an examining trial. The magistrate shall also inform the person arrested of the person's right to request the appointment of counsel if the person cannot afford counsel. The magistrate shall inform the person arrested of the procedures for requesting appointment of counsel. If the person does not speak and understand the English language or is deaf, the magistrate shall inform the person in a manner consistent with Articles 38.30 and 38.31, as appropriate. The magistrate shall ensure that reasonable assistance in completing the necessary forms for requesting appointment of counsel is provided to the person at the same time. If the person arrested is indigent and requests appointment of counsel and if the magistrate is authorized under Article 26.04 to appoint counsel for indigent defendants in the county, the magistrate shall appoint counsel in accordance with Article 1.051. If the magistrate is not authorized to appoint counsel, the magistrate shall without unnecessary delay, but not later than 24 hours after the person arrested requests appointment of counsel, transmit, or cause to be transmitted to the court or to the courts' designee authorized under Article 26.04 to appoint counsel in the county, the forms requesting the appointment of counsel. The magistrate shall also inform the person arrested that he is not required to make a statement and that any statement made by him may be used against him. The magistrate shall allow the person arrested reasonable time and opportunity to consult counsel and shall, after determining whether the person is currently on bail for a separate criminal offense, admit the person arrested to bail if allowed by law. A recording of the communication between the arrested person and the magistrate shall be made. The recording shall be preserved until the earlier of the following dates: (1) the date on which the pretrial hearing ends; or (2) the 91st day after the date on which the recording is made if the person is charged with a misdemeanor or the 120th day after the date on which the recording is made if the person is charged with a felony. The counsel for the defendant may obtain a copy of the recording on payment of a reasonable amount to cover costs of reproduction. For purposes of this subsection, "electronic broadcast system" means a two-way electronic communication of image and sound between the arrested person and the magistrate and includes secure internet videoconferencing.

(b) After an accused charged with a misdemeanor punishable by fine only is taken before a magistrate under Subsection (a) and the magistrate has identified the accused with certainty, the magistrate may release the accused without bond and order the accused to appear at a later date for arraignment in the applicable justice court or municipal court. The order must state in writing the time, date, and place of the arraignment, and the magistrate must sign the order. The accused shall receive a copy of the order on release. If an accused fails to appear as required by the order, the judge of the court in which the accused is required to appear shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused. If the accused is arrested and brought before the judge, the judge may admit the accused to bail, and in admitting the accused to bail, the judge should set as the amount of bail an amount double that generally set for the offense for which the accused was arrested. This subsection does not apply to an accused who has previously been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor other than a misdemeanor punishable by fine only.

(c) When a deaf accused is taken before a magistrate under this article or Article 14.06 of this Code, an interpreter appointed by the magistrate qualified and sworn as provided in Article 38.31 of this Code shall interpret the warning required by those articles in a language that the accused can understand, including but not limited to sign language.

(d) If a magistrate determines that a person brought before the magistrate after an arrest authorized by Article 14.051 of this code was arrested unlawfully, the magistrate shall release the person from custody. If the magistrate determines that the arrest was lawful, the person arrested is considered a fugitive from justice for the purposes of Article 51.13 of this code, and the disposition of the person is controlled by that article.

(e) In each case in which a person arrested is taken before a magistrate as required by Subsection (a), a record shall be made of:

(1) the magistrate informing the person of the person's right to request appointment of counsel;

(2) the magistrate asking the person whether the person wants to request appointment of counsel; and

(3) whether the person requested appointment of counsel.

(f) A record required under Subsection (e) may consist of written forms, electronic recordings, or other documentation as authorized by procedures adopted in the county under Article 26.04(a).

(g) If a person charged with an offense punishable as a misdemeanor appears before a magistrate in compliance with a citation issued under Article 14.06(b) or (c), the magistrate shall perform the duties imposed by this article in the same manner as if the person had been arrested and brought before the magistrate by a peace officer. After the magistrate performs the duties imposed by this article, the magistrate except for good cause shown may release the person on personal bond. If a person who was issued a citation under Article 14.06(c) fails to appear as required by that citation, the magistrate before which the person is required to appear shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused.

COMMENTARY: See generally, commentary under Art. 14.06 and Art. 1.051, supra.

Procedures normally required after arrest of accused persons and the preliminary proceedings which follow, such as the specific requirements of Art. 15.17, do not apply to persons charged with a community supervision violation. Yates v. State, 941 S.W.2d 357, 362 (Tex. App.—Waco 1997, writ ref'd).

When error is asserted and based on violation of a statute such as Art. 15.17, the harm analysis of Tex. R. App. P. 44.2(b) must be applied. Hinds v. State, 970 S.W.2d 33, 35 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1998, no pet.). “Errors in criminal cases which do not affect substantial rights are to be disregarded on appeal.” Morales v. State, 32 S.W.3d 862, 867 (Tex. Crim. App. 2000). “[A] substantial right is affected when the error had a substantial and injurious effect or influence in determining a jury’s verdict.” Id. (quoting King v. State, 953 S.W.2d 266, 271 (Tex. Crim. App. 1997)).

Complying with Art. 15.17 will eliminate compliance issues with Miranda requirements. Clark v. State, 627 S.W.2d 693, 704 (Tex. Crim. App. 1982).

Officers are not required to bring an arrested person before a magistrate immediately after arrest even if a magistrate is available. See Jenkins v. State, 912 S.W.2d 793, 807 (Tex. Crim. App. 1995). In Jenkins, there was no violation when the officers brought the arrested person before a magistrate sixteen hours after his arrest even though a magistrate was available. Id. “Failure to bring an arrested person before a magistrate in a timely manner will not invalidate a confession unless there is proof of causal connection between the delay and confession.” Cantu v. State, 842 S.W.2d 667, 680 (Tex. Crim. App. 1992).

The Supreme Court has held that states may prevent police officers from requesting interviews with represented defendants, but there is no constitutional requirement to do so. Montejo v. Louisiana, 556 U.S. 778, 793 (2009).

In Texas, a defendant’s Sixth Amendment right to counsel “attaches” or begins when he is brought before a magistrate as required by Art. 15.17. This does not necessarily mean he should get an attorney at that time, but it means he is entitled to one at any “critical stage” that occurs thereafter. Rothgery v. Gillespie County, 554 U.S. 191, 211–12 (2008).

The Sixth Amendment right to counsel is triggered at a defendant’s initial appearance before a magistrate judge where he is informed of the charges against him and that his liberty is subject to restriction. Id. at 212. However, the time for a defendant to assert his Fifth Amendment right to counsel for purposes of custodial interrogation is “[w]hen the police or other law enforcement agents approach a defendant and give him his Miranda warnings.” Pecina v. State, 361 S.W.3d 68, 78 (Tex. Crim. App. 2012). In Pecina, the Court held that a “magistration hearing is not an interrogation event” and does not trigger a Fifth Amendment right to counsel for custodial interrogations. Id.; see also Montejo, 556 U.S. at 786 (concluding that a Sixth Amendment request for an attorney at an arraignment, initial appearance, or Article 15.17 hearing, is a request for counsel for all judicial proceedings, but a Sixth Amendment right to counsel during the “critical stage” of post-arraignment custodial interrogation is implicated “when law enforcement or other state agents embark upon custodial interrogation.”). Essentially, if a criminal defendant desires attorney assistance during the police interrogation and at trial, he must request an attorney for both stages of the proceeding. See Pecina, 361 S.W.3d 68. Even “if a suspect makes a reference to an attorney that is ambiguous or equivocal in that a reasonable officer in light of the circumstances would have understood . . . that the suspect might be invoking the right to counsel,” law enforcement officers are not required to cease questioning. Davis v. United States, 512 U.S. 452, 459 (1994); see also Edwards v. Arizona, 451 U.S. 477, 485 (1981).

As long as the officers first read the defendants their Miranda rights and obtain a waiver of counsel as permitted under Miranda, police may still interrogate defendants after the right to counsel attaches. Montejo, 556 U.S. 778 (2009) (overruling Michigan v. Jackson, 475 U.S. 625 (1986), which intertwined the Fifth Amendment right to interrogation counsel with the Sixth Amendment right to trial counsel, forbidding police to initiate interrogation of a criminal defendant once he had invoked his right to counsel at an arraignment or similar proceeding).

Once a defendant invokes the right to have counsel present during police questioning, no interrogation may take place until counsel is present. Id. at 793; Hughen v. State, 297 S.W.3d 330, 335 (Tex. Crim. App. 2009) (noting that the Fifth Amendment bars police-initiated interrogation of defendants that have asserted their right to counsel unless counsel is present at the interrogation, but the Sixth Amendment does not invoke this same protection).

Art. 15.18. ARREST FOR OUT-OF-COUNTY OFFENSE.

(a) A person arrested under a warrant issued in a county other than the one in which the person is arrested shall be taken before a magistrate of the county where the arrest takes place or, to provide more expeditiously to the arrested person the warnings described by Article 15.17, before a magistrate in any other county of this state, including the county where the warrant was issued. The magistrate shall:

(1) take bail, if allowed by law, and, if without jurisdiction, immediately transmit the bond taken to the court having jurisdiction of the offense; or

(2) in the case of a person arrested under warrant for an offense punishable by fine only, accept a written plea of guilty or nolo contendere, set a fine, determine costs, accept payment of the fine and costs, give credit for time served, determine indigency, or, on satisfaction of the judgment, discharge the defendant, as the case may indicate.

(b) Before the 11th business day after the date a magistrate accepts a written plea of guilty or nolo contendere in a case under Subsection (a)(2), the magistrate shall, if without jurisdiction, transmit to the court having jurisdiction of the offense:

(1) the written plea;

(2) any orders entered in the case; and

(3) any fine or costs collected in the case.

(c) The arrested person may be taken before a magistrate by means of an electronic broadcast system as provided by and subject to the requirements of Article 15.17.

(d) This article does not apply to an arrest made pursuant to a capias pro fine issued under Chapter 43 or Article 45.045.

COMMENTARY: When an individual arrested on an out-of-county warrant under Art. 15.18 is also arrested on a parole revocation warrant, the magistrate who places the arrested person in jail must immediately notify the sheriff of the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed of the arrest on both warrants. It is the duty of the sheriff receiving notice to take charge of the arrested person and have him brought before the proper court or magistrate; the proper magistrate is an officer of the county identified by CCP Art. 2.09 as a magistrate, and the proper court is the court over which the magistrate presides. The sheriff may take the arrested person before a magistrate of the county where the person is held or, to provide the magistrate's warning more expeditiously, before a magistrate in any other county of the state. The sheriff is not required to take the arrested person to a magistrate in the county to which the person was paroled. A magistrate may perform a magistrate's duties under Chapter 15 for an alleged offender even though he is not yet authorized to try the offense on the merits. Op. Tex. Att'y Gen. GA-0605 (2008).

CHAPTER 17. BAIL

Art. 17.032. RELEASE ON PERSONAL BOND OF CERTAIN MENTALLY ILL DEFENDANTS.

(a) In this article, "violent offense" means an offense under the following sections of the Penal Code:

- (1) Section 19.02 (murder);
- (2) Section 19.03 (capital murder);
- (3) Section 20.03 (kidnapping);
- (4) Section 20.04 (aggravated kidnapping);
- (5) Section 21.11 (indecent with a child);
- (6) Section 22.01(a)(1) (assault);
- (7) Section 22.011 (sexual assault);
- (8) Section 22.02 (aggravated assault);

(9) Section 22.021 (aggravated sexual assault);

(10) Section 22.04 (injury to a child, elderly individual, or disabled individual);

(11) Section 29.03 (aggravated robbery);

(12) Section 21.02 (continuous sexual abuse of young child or children); or

(13) Section 20A.03 (continuous trafficking of persons).

(b) A magistrate shall release a defendant on personal bond unless good cause is shown otherwise if the:

(1) defendant is not charged with and has not been previously convicted of a violent offense;

(2) defendant is examined by the local mental health or mental retardation authority or another mental health expert under Article 16.22 of this code;

(3) applicable expert, in a written assessment submitted to the magistrate under Article 16.22:

(A) concludes that the defendant has a mental illness or is a person with mental retardation and is nonetheless competent to stand trial; and

(B) recommends mental health treatment for the defendant; and

(4) magistrate determines, in consultation with the local mental health or mental retardation authority, that appropriate community-based mental health or mental retardation services for the defendant are available through the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation under Section 534.053, Health and Safety Code, or through another mental health or mental retardation service provider.

(c) The magistrate, unless good cause is shown for not requiring treatment, shall require as a condition of release on personal bond under this article that the defendant submit to outpatient or inpatient mental health or mental retardation treatment as recommended by the local mental health or mental retardation authority if the defendant's:

(1) mental illness or mental retardation is chronic in nature; or

(2) ability to function independently will continue to deteriorate if the defendant is not treated.

(d) In addition to a condition of release imposed under Subsection (c) of this article, the magistrate may require the defendant to comply with other conditions that are reasonably necessary to protect the community.

(e) In this article, a person is considered to have been convicted of an offense if:

(1) a sentence is imposed;

(2) the person is placed on community supervision or receives deferred adjudication; or

(3) the court defers final disposition of the case.

Art. 17.033. RELEASE ON BOND OF CERTAIN PERSONS ARRESTED WITHOUT A WARRANT.

(a) Except as provided by Subsection (c), a person who is arrested without a warrant and who is detained in jail must be released on bond, in an amount not to exceed $5,000, not later than the 24th hour after the person's arrest if the person was arrested for a misdemeanor and a magistrate has not determined whether probable cause exists to believe that the person committed the offense. If the person is unable to obtain a surety for the bond or unable to deposit money in the amount of the bond, the person must be released on personal bond.

(a-1) Notwithstanding subsection (a) and except as provided by subsection (c), a person who, in a county with a population of three million or more, is arrested without a warrant and who is detained in jail must be released on bond, in an amount not to exceed $5,000, not later than the 36th hour after the person's arrest if the person was arrested for a misdemeanor and a magistrate has not determined whether probable cause exists to believe that the person committed the offense.

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (c), a person who is arrested without a warrant and who is detained in jail must be released on bond, in an amount not to exceed $10,000, not later than the 48th hour after the person's arrest if the person was arrested for a felony and a magistrate has not determined whether probable cause exists to believe that the person committed the offense. If the person is unable to obtain a surety for the bond or unable to deposit money in the amount of the bond, the person must be released on personal bond.

(c) On the filing of an application by the attorney representing the state, a magistrate may postpone the release of a person under Subsection (a), (a-1), or (b) for not more than 72 hours after the person's arrest. An application filed under this subsection must state the reason a magistrate has not determined whether probable cause exists to believe that the person committed the offense for which the person was arrested.

(d) The time limits imposed by Subsections (a), (a-1), and (b) do not apply to a person arrested without a warrant who is taken to a hospital, clinic, or other medical facility before being taken before a magistrate under Article 15.17. For a person described by this subsection, the time limits imposed by Subsections (a), (a-1), and (b) begin to run at the time, as documented in the records of the hospital, clinic, or other medical facility, that a physician or other medical professional releases the person from the hospital, clinic, or other medical facility.

(e) Subsection (a-1) and this subsection expire on September 1, 2013.

CHAPTER 26. ARRAIGNMENT

Art. 26.01. ARRAIGNMENT.

In all felony cases, after indictment, and all misdemeanor cases punishable by imprisonment, there shall be an arraignment.

Art. 26.011. WAIVER OF ARRAIGNMENT.

An attorney representing a defendant may present a waiver of arraignment, and the clerk of the court may not require the presence of the defendant as a condition of accepting the waiver.

Art. 26.02. PURPOSE OF ARRAIGNMENT.

An arraignment takes place for the purpose of fixing his identity and hearing his plea

Art. 26.03. TIME OF ARRAIGNMENT.

No arraignment shall take place until the expiration of at least two entire days after the day on which a copy of the indictment was served on the defendant, unless the right to such copy or to such delay be waived, or unless the defendant is on bail.

Art. 26.04. PROCEDURES FOR APPOINTING COUNSEL.

(a) The judges of the county courts, statutory county courts, and district courts trying criminal cases in each county, by local rule, shall adopt and publish written countywide procedures for timely and fairly appointing counsel for an indigent defendant in the county arrested for, charged with, or taking an appeal from a conviction of a misdemeanor punishable by confinement or a felony. The procedures must be consistent with this article and Articles 1.051, 15.17, 26.05, and 26.052. A court shall appoint an attorney from a public appointment list using a system of rotation, unless the court appoints an attorney under Subsection (f), (f-1), (h), or (i). The court shall appoint attorneys from among the next five names on the appointment list in the order in which the attorneys' names appear on the list, unless the court makes a finding of good cause on the record for appointing an attorney out of order. An attorney who is not appointed in the order in which the attorney's name appears on the list shall remain next in order on the list.

(b) Procedures adopted under Subsection (a) shall:

(1) authorize only the judges of the county courts, statutory county courts, and district courts trying criminal cases in the county, or the judges' designee, to appoint counsel for indigent defendants in the county;

(2) apply to each appointment of counsel made by a judge or the judges' designee in the county;

(3) ensure that each indigent defendant in the county who is charged with a misdemeanor punishable by confinement or with a felony and who appears in court without counsel has an opportunity to confer with appointed counsel before the commencement of judicial proceedings;

(4) require appointments for defendants in capital cases in which the death penalty is sought to comply with any applicable requirements under Articles 11.071 and 26.052;

(5) ensure that each attorney appointed from a public appointment list to represent an indigent defendant perform the attorney's duty owed to the defendant in accordance with the adopted procedures, the requirements of this code, and applicable rules of ethics; and

(6) ensure that appointments are allocated among qualified attorneys in a manner that is fair, neutral, and nondiscriminatory.

(c) Whenever a court or the courts' designee authorized under Subsection (b) to appoint counsel for indigent defendants in the county determines for purposes of a criminal proceeding that a defendant charged with or appealing a conviction of a felony or a misdemeanor punishable by confinement is indigent or that the interests of justice require representation of a defendant in the proceeding, the court or the courts' designee shall appoint one or more practicing attorneys to represent the defendant in accordance with this subsection and the procedures adopted under Subsection (a). If the court or the courts' designee determines that the defendant does not speak and understand the English language or that the defendant is deaf, the court or the courts' designee shall make an effort to appoint an attorney who is capable of communicating in a language understood by the defendant.

(d) A public appointment list from which an attorney is appointed as required by Subsection (a) shall contain the names of qualified attorneys, each of whom:

- (1) applies to be included on the list;
- (2) meets the objective qualifications specified by the judges under Subsection (e);
- (3) meets any applicable qualifications specified by the Texas Indigent Defense Commission; and
- (4) is approved by a majority of the judges who established the appointment list under Subsection (e).

(e) In a county in which a court is required under Subsection (a) to appoint an attorney from a public appointment list:

- (1) the judges of the county courts and statutory county courts trying misdemeanor cases in the county, by formal action:

(A) shall:

- (i) establish a public appointment list of attorneys qualified to provide representation in the county in misdemeanor cases punishable by confinement; and
- (ii) specify the objective qualifications necessary for an attorney to be included on the list; and

(B) may establish, if determined by the judges to be appropriate, more than one appointment list graduated according to the degree of seriousness of the offense, the attorneys' qualifications, and whether representation will be provided in trial court proceedings, appellate proceedings, or both; and

(2) the judges of the district courts trying felony cases in the county, by formal action:

(A) shall:

- (i) establish a public appointment list of attorneys qualified to provide representation in felony cases in the county; and
- (ii) specify the objective qualifications necessary for an attorney to be included on the list; and

(B) may establish, if determined by the judges to be appropriate, more than one appointment list graduated according to the degree of seriousness of the offense, the attorneys' qualifications, and whether representation will be provided in trial court proceedings, appellate proceedings, or both.

(f) In a county in which a public defender's office is created or designated under Article 26.044, the court or the courts' designee may appoint that office to represent the defendant in accordance with guidelines established for the office.

(f-1) In a county in which a managed assigned counsel program is operated in accordance with Article 26.047, the managed assigned counsel program may appoint counsel to represent the defendant in accordance with the guidelines established for the program.

(g) A countywide alternative program for appointing counsel for indigent defendants in criminal cases is established by a formal action in which two-thirds of the judges of the courts designated under this subsection vote to establish the alternative program. An alternative program for appointing counsel in misdemeanor and felony cases may be established in the manner provided by this subsection by the judges of the county courts, statutory county courts, and district courts trying criminal cases in the county. An alternative program for appointing counsel in misdemeanor cases may be established in the manner provided by this subsection by the judges of the county courts and statutory county courts trying criminal cases in the county. An alternative program for appointing counsel in felony cases may be established in the manner provided by this subsection by the judges of the district courts trying criminal cases in the county. In a county in which an alternative program is established:

(1) the alternative program may:

(A) use a single method for appointing counsel or a combination of methods; and

(B) use a multicounty appointment list using a system of rotation; and

(2) the procedures adopted under Subsection (a) must ensure that:

(A) attorneys appointed using the alternative program to represent defendants in misdemeanor cases punishable by confinement:

(i) meet specified objective qualifications for that representation, which may be graduated according to the degree of seriousness of the offense and whether representation will be provided in trial court proceedings, appellate proceedings, or both; and

(ii) are approved by a majority of the judges of the county courts and statutory county courts trying misdemeanor cases in the county;

(B) attorneys appointed using the alternative program to represent defendants in felony cases:

(i) meet specified objective qualifications for that representation, which may be graduated according to the degree of seriousness of the offense and whether representation will be provided in trial court proceedings, appellate proceedings, or both; and

(ii) are approved by a majority of the judges of the district courts trying felony cases in the county;

(C) appointments for defendants in capital cases in which the death penalty is sought comply with the requirements of Article 26.052; and

(D) appointments are reasonably and impartially allocated among qualified attorneys.

(h) In a county in which an alternative program for appointing counsel is established as provided by Subsection (g) and is approved by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial region, a court or the courts' designee may appoint an attorney to represent an indigent defendant by using the alternative program. In establishing an alternative program under Subsection (g), the judges of the courts establishing the program may not, without the approval of the commissioners court, obligate the county by contract or by the creation of new positions that cause an increase in expenditure of county funds.

(i) A court or the courts' designee required under Subsection (c) to appoint an attorney to represent a defendant accused or convicted of a felony may appoint an attorney from any county located in the court's administrative judicial region.

(j) An attorney appointed under this article shall:

(1) make every reasonable effort to contact the defendant not later than the end of the first working day after the date on which the attorney is appointed and to interview the defendant as soon as practicable after the attorney is appointed;

(2) represent the defendant until charges are dismissed, the defendant is acquitted, appeals are exhausted, or the attorney is permitted or ordered by the court to withdraw as counsel for the defendant after a finding of good cause is entered on the record; ~~and~~

(3) with respect to a defendant not represented by other counsel, before withdrawing as counsel for the defendant after a trial or the entry of a plea of guilty:

(A) advise the defendant of the defendant's right to file a motion for new trial and a notice of appeal;

(B) if the defendant wishes to pursue either or both remedies described by Paragraph (A), assist the defendant in requesting the prompt appointment of replacement counsel; and

(C) if replacement counsel is not appointed promptly and the defendant wishes to pursue an appeal, file a timely notice of appeal; and

(4) not later than October 15 of each year and on a form prescribed by the Texas Indigent Defense Commission, submit to the county information, for the preceding fiscal year, that describes the percentage of the attorney's practice time that was dedicated to work based on appointments accepted in the county under this article and Title 3, Family Code.

(k) A court may replace an attorney who violates Subsection (j)(1) with other counsel. A majority of the judges of the county courts and statutory county courts or the district courts, as appropriate, trying criminal cases in the county may remove from consideration for appointment an attorney who intentionally or repeatedly violates Subsection (j)(1).

(l) Procedures adopted under Subsection (a) must include procedures and financial standards for determining whether a defendant is indigent. The procedures and standards shall apply to each defendant in the county equally, regardless of whether the defendant is in custody or has been released on bail.

(m) In determining whether a defendant is indigent, the court or the courts' designee may consider the defendant's income, source of income, assets, property owned, outstanding obligations, necessary expenses, the number and ages of dependents, and spousal income that is available to the defendant. The court or the courts' designee may not consider whether the defendant has posted or is capable of posting bail, except to the extent that it reflects the defendant's financial circumstances as measured by the considerations listed in this subsection.

(n) A defendant who requests a determination of indigency and appointment of counsel shall:

(1) complete under oath a questionnaire concerning his financial resources;

(2) respond under oath to an examination regarding his financial resources by the judge or magistrate responsible for determining whether the defendant is indigent; or

(3) complete the questionnaire and respond to examination by the judge or magistrate.

(o) Before making a determination of whether a defendant is indigent, the court shall request the defendant to sign under oath a statement substantially in the following form:

"On this _____ day of _____, 20 ____, I have been advised by the (name of the court) Court of my right to representation by counsel in connection with the charge pending against me. I certify that I am without means to employ counsel of my own choosing and I hereby request the court to appoint counsel for me. (signature of the defendant)"

(p) A defendant who is determined by the court to be indigent is presumed to remain indigent for the remainder of the proceedings in the case unless a material change in the defendant's financial circumstances occurs. If there is a material change in financial circumstances after a determination of indigency or non-indigency is made, the defendant, the defendant's counsel, or the attorney representing the state may move for reconsideration of the determination.

(q) A written or oral statement elicited under this article or evidence derived from the statement may not be used for any purpose, except to determine the defendant's indigency or to impeach the direct testimony of the defendant. This subsection does not prohibit prosecution of the defendant under Chapter 37, Penal Code.

(r) A court may not threaten to arrest or incarcerate a person solely because the person requests the assistance of counsel.

Effective date: 9/1/14

2013 LEGISLATIVE NOTE: HB 1318 adds subsection (j)(4) to require counsel representing indigent defendants to report to the Texas Indigent Defense Commission the percentage of his or her total caseload comprised of appointment-based work for the prior fiscal year.

COMMENTARY: See generally, commentary under Art. 1.051, supra.

The Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments dictate that a defendant "must be afforded the right to the assistance of counsel before he can validly be convicted and punished by imprisonment." Blankenship v. State, 673 S.W.2d 578, 582 (Tex. Crim. App. 1984).

The Sixth Amendment also guarantees the corresponding right to self-representation. Faretta v. California, 422 U.S. 806, 819 (1975). But see Webb v. State, 533 S.W.2d 780, 784 (Tex. Crim. App. 1976) (stating that while the "accused has the right to prosecute his own appeal, the accused does not have a correlative right, exercisable on demand, to appear pro se before the Court of Criminal Appeals and present oral arguments."). The record must adequately reflect that a defendant waived his right to self-representation after asserting it, but proof of such waiver is not subject to as stringent a standard as proof of waiver of the right to counsel. Funderburg v. State, 717 S.W.2d 637, 642 (Tex. Crim. App. 1986). It is enough if the record sufficiently demonstrates that a defendant abandoned his initial request to represent himself although mere acquiescence to a trial court's unmistakable denial of his request to represent himself is not a waiver of a defendant's right to self-representation. Id. See also Brown v. Wainwright, 665 F.2d 607, 611–12 (5th Cir. 1982).

The trial court does not have a duty under Art. 26.04 to appoint counsel until a defendant proves his indigence. Gray v. Robinson, 744 S.W.2d 604, 607 (Tex. Crim. App. 1988). In order to make its determination of indigence, the trial court is authorized to conduct an evidentiary hearing. Id.

Once established, the attorney-client relationship between an accused and his attorney should be protected by the courts without distinction as to whether the attorney is retained or appointed. Stearnes v. Clinton, 780 S.W.2d 216, 221–22 (Tex. Crim. App. 1989).

Regardless of whether retained or appointed, trial counsel "has the duty, obligation and responsibility to consult with and fully to advise his client concerning meaning and effect of the judgment rendered by the court, his right to appeal from that judgment, the necessity of giving notice of appeal and taking other steps to pursue an appeal, as well as expressing his professional judgment as to possible grounds for appeal and their merit, and delineating advantages and disadvantages of appeal.” Ex parte Axel, 757 S.W.2d 369, 374 (Tex. Crim. App. 1998).

In the case where an attorney is appointed to represent an indigent defendant, the defendant has the right to counsel as provided under the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments and Art. 26.04, Code of Criminal Procedure. Malcom v. State, 628 S.W.2d 790, 791 (Tex. Crim. App. 1982). If a defendant is dissatisfied with his appointed counsel, he has the burden of proving that he is entitled to a change of counsel. Malcom, 628 S.W.2d. at 791.

The trial court has the responsibility to relieve an appointed attorney of his duties as well as the responsibility to appoint new counsel to represent an indigent appellant. Bonner v. State, 29 S.W.3d 360, 361 (Tex. App.—Waco 2000, pet. ref’d) (emphasis in original). But, when counsel files an Anders brief with an appellate court and the appellate court agrees that there are “no non-frivolous issues to be raised in an appeal,” there is no constitutional right to counsel, and the appellate court may grant counsel’s request to withdraw from the case. Meza v. State, 206 S.W.3d 684, 688–89 (Tex. Crim. App. 2006).

Where counsel is not replaced, a “magistrate does not err in permitting an attorney to substitute for the counsel of record where the defendant agrees to the substitution and the attorney of record does not object.” Roberson v. State, 879 S.W.2d 250, 252 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1994, pet. ref’d) (emphasis in original) (citing Buntion v. Harmon, infra).

A trial judge does not have the discretion to replace appointed trial counsel over counsel and defendant’s objections without some principled reason apparent from the face of the record. Buntion v. Harmon, 827 S.W.2d 945, 949 (Tex. Crim. App. 1992); see also Stotts v. Wisser, 894 S.W.2d 366, 368 (Tex. Crim. App. 1995).

When defendant’s trial counsel does not withdraw from representation after sentencing and is not replaced by new counsel, a rebuttable presumption exists that trial counsel continued to effectively represent him during the time for filing a motion for new trial. See Smith v. State, 17 S.W.3d 660, 662 (Tex. Crim. App. 2000) (quoting Oldham v. State, 977 S.W.2d 354, 363 (Tex. Crim. App. 1998)).

In order for a defendant to be considered “indigent” and receive a free appellate record, “the defendant must make a prima facie showing of indigence” Tuck v. State, 215 S.W.3d 411, 415 (Tex. Crim. App. 2007) (quoting Whitehead v. State, infra). After a prima facie showing of indigence is made, the burden shifts to the State to disprove this showing. Id. The Court of Criminal Appeals has implied that “[this] two-step process should also be used to determine whether to appoint counsel for an appeal.” Whitehead v. State, 130 S.W.3d 866, 874 (Tex. Crim. App. 2004). In Whitehead, the Court signified two different contexts in which a defendant can be considered indigent: a defendant is indigent in the appointment of counsel context if he cannot afford to employ counsel of his own choosing, but “[f]or the purpose of determining entitlement to a free record, a defendant is considered indigent if he ‘cannot pay or give security’ for the appellate record.” Id. at 878. While the same factors are generally considered for both of these inquiries, “it is possible for a defendant to be indigent in one context but not the other,” depending principally on the respective costs of each. Whitehead, 130 S.W.3d at 878; see also Castillo v. State, 595 S.W.2d 552 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980).

When determining indigence, deference to the defendant’s allegations concerning his own financial status is part of the standard; however, the trial court may disbelieve the defendant’s allegations “if there is a reasonable, articulable basis for doing so, either because there is conflicting evidence or because the evidence submitted is in some manner suspect or determined by the court to be inadequate.” Whitehead, 130 S.W.3d at 876. An inquiry into the reasonableness of the defendant’s expenses is appropriate in order to determine whether a defendant can pay for an appellate record. Tuck, 215 S.W.3d at 416.

Submitting an “income and expense summary” and a “net worth statement” along with a signed affidavit attesting to the truth of these documents may serve the same purpose as answering the questionnaire required by Art. 26.04(n)(1), Code of Criminal Procedure. Whitehead, 130 S.W.3d. at 877.

"[A]n individual's negative net worth does not necessarily translate into indigence; the real question is whether the defendant is capable of paying for legal counsel and for the appellate record." Id. at 878.

After alleging indigency, a person may not transfer his assets while awaiting trial in order to receive appointment of counsel, a free transcript, and free statement of facts. Cardona v. Marshall, 635 S.W.2d 741, 743 (Tex. Crim. App. 1982). A defendant, however, "should not be denied appointment of counsel solely because other members of his family have assets and income" Id. at 743 (quoting United States v. Robinson, 543 F.2d 951 (2nd Cir.), cert. denied).

Art. 26.044. PUBLIC DEFENDER'S OFFICE.

(a) In this chapter:

(1) "Governmental entity" includes a county, a group of counties, a department of a county, an administrative judicial region created by Section 74.042, Government Code, and any entity created under the Interlocal Cooperation Act as permitted by Chapter 791, Government Code.

(2) "Office of capital writs" means the office of capital writs established under Subchapter B, Chapter 78, Government Code.

(3) "Oversight board" means an oversight board established in accordance with Article 26.045.

(4) "Public defender's office" means an entity that:

(A) is either:

(i) a governmental entity; or

(ii) a nonprofit corporation operating under a written agreement with a governmental entity, other than an individual judge or court; and

(B) uses public funds to provide legal representation and services to indigent defendants accused of a crime or juvenile offense, as those terms are defined by Section 79.001, Government Code.

(b) The commissioners court of any county, on written approval of a judge of a county court, statutory county court, or district court trying criminal cases or cases under Title 3, Family Code, in the county, may create a department of the county or by contract may designate a nonprofit corporation to serve as a public defender's office. The commissioners courts of two or more counties may enter into a written agreement to jointly create or designate and jointly fund a regional public defender's office. In creating or designating a public defender's office under this subsection, the commissioners court shall specify or the commissioners courts shall jointly specify, if creating or designating a regional public defender's office:

(1) the duties of the public defender's office;

(2) the types of cases to which the public defender's office may be appointed under Article 26.04(f) and the courts in which an attorney employed by the public defender's office may be required to appear;

(3) if the public defender's office is a nonprofit corporation, the term during which the contract designating the public defender's office is effective and how that contract may be renewed on expiration of the term; and

(4) if an oversight board is established under Article 26.045 for the public defender's office, the powers and duties that have been delegated to the oversight board.

(b-1) The applicable commissioners court or commissioners courts shall require a written plan from a governmental entity serving as a public defender's office.

(c) Before contracting with a nonprofit corporation to serve as a public defender's office under Subsection (b), the commissioners court or commissioners courts shall solicit proposals for the public defender's office.

(c-1) A written plan under Subsection (b-1) or a proposal must include:

- (1) a budget for the public defender's office, including salaries;
- (2) a description of each personnel position, including the chief public defender position;
- (3) the maximum allowable caseloads for each attorney employed by the public defender's office;
- (4) provisions for personnel training;
- (5) a description of anticipated overhead costs for the public defender's office;
- (6) policies regarding the use of licensed investigators and expert witnesses by the public defender's office; and
- (7) a policy to ensure that the chief public defender and other attorneys employed by the public defender's office do not provide representation to a defendant if doing so would create a conflict of interest that has not been waived by the client

(d) After considering each proposal for the public defender's office submitted by a nonprofit corporation under Subsection (c), the commissioners court or commissioners courts shall select a proposal that reasonably demonstrates that the public defender's office will provide adequate quality representation for indigent defendants in the county or counties.

(e) The total cost of the proposal under Subsection (c) may not be the sole consideration in selecting a proposal.

(f) A public defender's office must be directed by a chief public defender who:

- (1) is a member of the State Bar of Texas;
- (2) has practiced law for at least three years; and
- (3) has substantial experience in the practice of criminal law.

(g) A public defender's office is entitled to receive funds for personnel costs and expenses incurred in operating as a public defender's office in amounts fixed by the commissioners court and paid out of the appropriate county fund, or jointly fixed by the commissioners courts and proportionately paid out of each appropriate county fund if the public defender's office serves more than one county.

(h) A public defender's office may employ attorneys, licensed investigators, and other personnel necessary to perform the duties of the public defender's office as specified by the commissioners court or commissioners courts under Subsection (b)(1).

(i) Except as authorized by this article, the chief public defender and other attorneys employed by a public defender's office may not:

- (1) engage in the private practice of criminal law; or
- (2) accept anything of value not authorized by this article for services rendered under this article.

(j) A public defender's office may not accept an appointment under Article 26.04(f) if:

- (1) a conflict of interest exists that has not been waived by the client;
- (2) the public defender's office has insufficient resources to provide adequate representation for the defendant;

(3) the public defender's office is incapable of providing representation for the defendant in accordance with the rules of professional conduct;

(4) the acceptance of the appointment would violate the maximum allowable caseloads established at the public defender's office; or

~~(5)~~(4) the public defender's office shows other good cause for not accepting the appointment.

(j-1) On refusing an appointment under Subsection (j), a chief public defender shall file with the court a written statement that identifies any reason for refusing the appointment. The court shall determine whether the chief public defender has demonstrated adequate good cause for refusing the appointment and shall include the statement with the papers in the case.

(j-2) A chief public defender may not be terminated, removed, or sanctioned for refusing in good faith to accept an appointment under Subsection (j).

(k) The judge may remove from a case a person who violates a provision of Subsection (i).

(l) A public defender's office may investigate the financial condition of any person the public defender's office is appointed to represent. The public defender's office shall report the results of the investigation to the appointing judge. The judge may hold a hearing to determine if the person is indigent and entitled to representation under this article.

(m) If it is necessary that an attorney who is not employed by a public defender's office be appointed, the attorney is entitled to the compensation provided by Article 26.05 of this code.

(n) An attorney employed by a public defender's office may be appointed with respect to an application for a writ of habeas corpus only if:

(1) an attorney employed by the office of capital writs is not appointed in the case; and

(2) the attorney employed by the public defender's office is on the list of competent counsel maintained under Section 78.056, Government Code.

Effective date: 9/1/13

2013 LEGISLATIVE NOTE: HB 1318 amends subsection (j) to include (j)(4), which prohibits a public defender from accepting an appointment if that appointment would violate the maximum attorney caseload limit established for the office.

HB 1318 also adds subsections (j-1) and (j-2). (j-1) requires the chief public defender to file a written statement explaining why he or she is refusing the appointment. The court will then review and determine whether the reason for the refusal demonstrates adequate good cause.

Subsection (j-2) protects the chief public defender from being fired, removed, or sanctioned for his or her good faith refusal of an appointment.

COMMENTARY: "After the commissioners court has established a public defender's office [pursuant to Art. 26.044, Code of Criminal Procedure], it remains obligated to pay attorneys appointed by trial courts to represent indigent defendants and must direct payment of the full amount of attorney fees ordered by a court under Art. 26.05, unless it can show that the trial court's award is so unreasonable as to amount to an abuse of discretion." Op. Tex. Att'y Gen. LO-063 (1997).

Art. 26.045. PUBLIC DEFENDER OVERSIGHT BOARD.

(a) The commissioners court of a county or the commissioners courts of two or more counties may establish an oversight board for a public defender's office created or designated in accordance with this chapter.

(b) The commissioners court or courts that establish an oversight board under this article shall appoint members of the board. Members may include one or more of the following:

(4) a county judge;

(5) a community representative; and

(6) a former client or a family member of a former client of the public defender's office for which the oversight board was established under this article.

(1) recommending selection and removal of a chief public defender;

(2) setting policy for the office; and

(3) developing a budget proposal for the office.

(d) An oversight board established under this article may not gain access to privileged or confidential information.

ART. 26.047. MANAGED ASSIGNED COUNSEL PROGRAM.

(a) In this article:

(1) "Governmental entity" has the meaning assigned by Article 26.044.

(2) "Managed assigned counsel program" or "program" means a program operated with public funds:

(A) by a governmental entity, nonprofit corporation, or bar association under a written agreement with a governmental entity, other than an individual judge or court; and

(B) for the purpose of appointing counsel under Article 26.04 of this code or Section 51.10, Family Code.

(b) The commissioners court of any county, on written approval of a judge of the juvenile court of a county or a county court, statutory county court, or district court trying criminal cases in the county, may appoint a governmental entity, nonprofit corporation, or bar association to operate a managed assigned counsel program. The commissioners courts of two or more counties may enter into a written agreement to jointly appoint and fund a governmental entity, nonprofit corporation, or bar association to operate a managed assigned counsel program. In appointing an entity to operate a managed assigned counsel program under this subsection, the commissioners court shall specify or the commissioners courts shall jointly specify:

(1) the types of cases in which the program may appoint counsel under Article 26.04 of this code or Section 51.10, Family Code, and the courts in which the counsel appointed by the program may be required to appear; and

(2) the term of any agreement establishing a program and how the agreement may be terminated or renewed.

(c) The commissioners court or commissioners courts shall require a written plan of operation from an entity operating a program under this article. The plan of operation must include:

(1) a budget for the program, including salaries;

(2) a description of each personnel position, including the program's director;

(3) the maximum allowable caseload for each attorney appointed by the program;

(4) provisions for training personnel of the program and attorneys appointed under the program;

(5) a description of anticipated overhead costs for the program;

(6) a policy regarding licensed investigators and expert witnesses used by attorneys appointed under the program;

(7) a policy to ensure that appointments are reasonably and impartially allocated among qualified attorneys; and

(8) a policy to ensure that an attorney appointed under the program does not accept appointment in a case that involves a conflict of interest for the attorney that has not been waived by all affected clients.

(d) A program under this article must have a director. Unless the program uses a review committee appointed under Subsection (e), a program under this article must be directed by a person who:

(1) is a member of the State Bar of Texas;

(2) has practiced law for at least three years; and

(3) has substantial experience in the practice of criminal law.

(e) The governmental entity, nonprofit corporation, or bar association operating the program may appoint a review committee of three or more individuals to approve attorneys for inclusion on the program's public appointment list described by Subsection (f). Each member of the committee:

(1) must meet the requirements described by Subsection (d);

(2) may not be employed as a prosecutor; and

(3) may not be included on or apply for inclusion on the public appointment list described by Subsection (f).

(f) The program's public appointment list from which an attorney is appointed must contain the names of qualified attorneys, each of whom:

(1) applies to be included on the list;

(2) meets any applicable requirements specified by the procedure for appointing counsel adopted under Article 26.04(a) and the Texas Indigent Defense Commission; and

(3) is approved by the program director or review committee, as applicable.

(g) A court may replace an attorney appointed by the program for the same reasons and in the same manner described by Article 26.04(k).

(h) A managed assigned counsel program is entitled to receive funds for personnel costs and expenses incurred in amounts fixed by the commissioners court and paid out of the appropriate county fund, or jointly fixed by the commissioners courts and proportionately paid out of each appropriate county fund if the program serves more than one county.

(i) A managed assigned counsel program may employ personnel and enter into contracts necessary to perform the program's duties as specified by the commissioners court or commissioners courts under this article.

Art. 26.05. COMPENSATION OF COUNSEL APPOINTED TO DEFEND.

(a) A counsel, other than an attorney with a public defender's office or an attorney employed by the office of capital writs, appointed to represent a defendant in a criminal proceeding, including a habeas corpus hearing, shall be paid a reasonable attorney's fee for performing the following services, based on the time and labor required, the complexity of the case, and the experience and ability of the appointed counsel:

(1) time spent in court making an appearance on behalf of the defendant as evidenced by a docket entry, time spent in trial, and time spent in a proceeding in which sworn oral testimony is elicited;

(2) reasonable and necessary time spent out of court on the case, supported by any documentation that the court requires;

(3) preparation of an appellate brief and preparation and presentation of oral argument to a court of appeals or the Court of Criminal Appeals; and

(4) preparation of a motion for rehearing.

(b) All payments made under this article shall be paid in accordance with a schedule of fees adopted by formal action of the judges of the county courts, statutory county courts, and district courts trying criminal cases in each county. On adoption of a schedule of fees as provided by this subsection, a copy of the schedule shall be sent to the commissioners court of the county.

(c) Each fee schedule adopted shall state reasonable fixed rates or minimum and maximum hourly rates, taking into consideration reasonable and necessary overhead costs and the availability of qualified attorneys willing to accept the stated rates, and shall provide a form for the appointed counsel to itemize the types of services performed. No payment shall be made under this article until the form for itemizing the services performed is submitted to the judge presiding over the proceedings or, if the county operates a managed assigned counsel program under Article 26.047, to the director of the program, and until the judge or director, as applicable, approves the payment. If the judge or director disapproves the requested amount of payment, the judge or director shall make written findings stating the amount of payment that the judge or director approves and each reason for approving an amount different from the requested amount. An attorney whose request for payment is disapproved or is not otherwise acted on by the 60th day after the date the request for payment is submitted may appeal the disapproval or failure to act by filing a motion with the presiding judge of the administrative judicial region. On the filing of a motion, the presiding judge of the administrative judicial region shall review the disapproval of payment or failure to act and determine the appropriate amount of payment. In reviewing the disapproval or failure to act, the presiding judge of the administrative judicial region may conduct a hearing. Not later than the 45th day after the date an application for payment of a fee is submitted under this article, the commissioners court shall pay to the appointed counsel the amount that is approved by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial region and that is in accordance with the fee schedule for that county.

(d) A counsel in a non-capital case, other than an attorney with a public defender's office, appointed to represent a defendant under this code shall be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary expenses, including expenses for investigation and for mental health and other experts. Expenses incurred with prior court approval shall be reimbursed in the same manner provided for capital cases by Articles 26.052(f) and (g), and expenses incurred without prior court approval shall be reimbursed in the manner provided for capital cases by Article 26.052(h).

(e) A majority of the judges of the county courts and statutory county courts or the district courts, as appropriate, trying criminal cases in the county may remove an attorney from consideration for appointment if, after a hearing, it is shown that the attorney submitted a claim for legal services not performed by the attorney.

(f) All payments made under this article shall be paid from the general fund of the county in which the prosecution was instituted or habeas corpus hearing held and may be included as costs of court.

(g) If the court determines that a defendant has financial resources that enable him to offset in part or in whole the costs of the legal services provided, including any expenses and costs, the court shall order the defendant to pay during the pendency of the charges or, if convicted, as court costs the amount that it finds the defendant is able to pay.

(h) Reimbursement of expenses incurred for purposes of investigation or expert testimony may be paid directly to a private investigator licensed under Chapter 1702, Occupations Code, or to an expert witness in the manner designated by appointed counsel and approved by the court.

COMMENTARY: Trial courts may order defendants to pay court-appointed attorney fees if they are determined to be financially capable. Sauceda v. State, 309 S.W.3d 767, 770 (Tex. App.—Amarillo 2010, pet. ref'd). A defendant's resources and ability to pay are critical elements in a trial court's determination of whether a defendant should be obligated to pay attorney fees. Mayer v. State, 309 S.W.3d 552, 556 (Tex. Crim. App. 2010); see also Sauceda, 309 S.W.3d at 770. In a recent opinion, the Court of Criminal Appeals clarified that "Code of Criminal Procedure Article 26.05(q) requires a present determination of financial resources and does not allow speculation about possible future resources." Cates v. State, No. PD-0861-12, 2013 LEXIS 947, at *3-4 (Tex. Crim. App. June 26, 2013).

An order to repay appointed attorney fees is invalid if it is entered without any "determination or finding by the trial court that appellant had any financial resources or was 'able to pay' the appointed attorney fees." Mayer, 309 S.W.3d at 553; see In re Daniel, 396 S.W.3d 545, 549 (Tex. Crim. App. 2013) (holding that a District Clerk lacks the authority to issue a "Bill of Cost" mandating the payment of appointed attorneys fees without the "necessary finding that a previously indigent applicant has the present financial wherewithal to pay those appointed attorney fees . . .").

"It is not an inherent violation of due process for the State, [pursuant to Art. 26.05(g)], to take reasonable steps to collect on expenditures made on behalf of those who have the ability to off-set the State's expenses." Curry v. Wilson, 853 S.W.2d 40, 46 (Tex. Crim. App. 1993).

The trial court has the discretion to determine the proper value of the legal fees it orders a defendant to pay under Art. 26.05(g); however, due process requires a showing of evidence in the record of a factual basis for the amount set. Hester v. State, 859 S.W.2d 95, 97 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1993, no pet.) (citing Barker v. State, 662 S.W.2d 640, 642 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1983, no pet.)). Trial courts cannot "postpone the determination of the fees owed indefinitely to some time after the judgment becomes final." Burke v. State, 261 S.W.3d 438, 439 (Tex. App.—Austin 2008, no pet.).

A complaint about the sufficiency of evidence of an appellant's financial resources and ability to pay are not waived by the appellant's failure to raise the complaint at trial. Mayer, 309 S.W.3d at 556. Cases with claims of insufficient evidence usually do not get remanded to allow for supplements to be added to the record. Id. at 557. The claims are measured by "viewing all of the record evidence in the light most favorable to the verdict." Id.

Appellants complaining of improper action under Art. 26.05 must show how they were harmed or injured by such action through evidence in the record. Reed v. State, 644 S.W.2d 479, 481 (Tex. Crim. App. 1983).

The trial court retains the discretion to appoint an expert witness under Art. 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure. Quin v. State, 608 S.W.2d 937, 938 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980). "Absent a showing of harm, no abuse of that discretion in the refusal to appoint an expert witness will be found." Id.

The assessment of fees for an appointed attorney is not punitive. Armstrong v. State, 340 S.W.3d 759 (Tex. Crim. App. 2011). Court costs (including attorneys fees), as reflected in a certified bill of costs, need neither be orally pronounced nor incorporated by reference in the judgment to be effective. Id.

"[A]n indigent person's court-appointed attorney for a civil contempt proceeding may not be paid from the general fund of a county under the authority of Art. 26.05." Op. Tex. Att'y Gen. JM-403 (1985) (citing Op. Tex. Att'y Gen. MW-242 (1980)).

"[S]tate funded attorney fees cannot be awarded for services rendered prior to the date that counsel is appointed to represent an indigent."

Gray v. Robinson, 744 S.W.2d 604, 607 (Tex. Crim. App. 1988).

Indigent defendants are “not automatically entitled to assistance of court-appointed counsel to file a petition for discretionary review” Peterson v. Jones, 894 S.W.2d 370, 373 (Tex. Crim. App. 1995). There is no statutory duty for district judges to authorize payment for attorney services performed in filing petitions for discretionary review. Id.

At a contempt proceeding for failure to pay court-ordered attorney fees, “a defendant must be informed of his right to representation, and if found indigent, his right to appointment of counsel.” Ex parte Gonzales, 945 S.W.2d 830 (Tex. Crim. App. 1997).

On September 7th, 2011, the Attorney General issued an opinion related to the appointment of counsel in criminal cases for non-indigent defendants. The opinion concluded that although it is not required, a court may appoint counsel to a non-indigent defendant “when the interests of justice require.” Op. Tex. Att’y Gen. GA-0884 (2011). The opinion also addresses the appropriate amounts of attorney fee repayment orders when the county is served by a contract defender. The attorney general concluded that “[a] court may require a defendant, in an order of community supervision, to pay attorney fees according to the county’s schedule of fees established under article 26.05, regardless of the county commissioners court’s contract with individual attorneys.” Id.

Art. 26.051. INDIGENT INMATE DEFENSE.

(a) In this article:

(1) “Board” means the Texas Board of Criminal Justice.

(2) “Correctional institutions division” means the correctional institutions division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

(b) A court shall:

(1) notify the board if it determines that a defendant before the court is indigent and is an inmate charged with an offense committed while in the custody of the correctional institutions division or a correctional facility authorized by Section 495.001, Government Code; and

(2) request that the board provide legal representation for the inmate.

(c) The board shall provide legal representation for inmates described by Subsection (d) of this section. The board may employ attorneys, support staff, and any other personnel required to provide legal representation for those inmates. All personnel employed under this article are directly responsible to the board in the performance of their duties. The board shall pay all fees and costs associated with providing legal representation for those inmates.

(d) Repealed by Acts 1993, 73rd Leg., ch. 988, Sec. 7.02, eff. Sept. 1, 1993.

(e) The court shall appoint an attorney other than an attorney provided by the board if the court determines for any of the following reasons that a conflict of interest could arise from the use of an attorney provided by the board under Subsection (e) of this article:

(1) the case involves more than one inmate and the representation of more than one inmate could impair the attorney’s effectiveness;

(2) the case is appealed and the court is satisfied that conflict of interest would prevent the presentation of a good faith allegation of ineffective assistance of counsel by a trial attorney provided by the board; or

(3) any conflict of interest exists under the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct of the State Bar of Texas that precludes representation by an attorney appointed by the board.

(f) When the court appoints an attorney other than an attorney provided by the board:

(1) except as otherwise provided by this article, the inmate's legal defense is subject to Articles 1.051, 26.04, 26.05, and 26.052, as applicable; and

(2) the county in which a facility of the correctional institutions division or a correctional facility authorized by Section 495.001, Government Code, is located shall pay from its general fund the total costs of the aggregate amount allowed and awarded by the court for attorney compensation and expenses under Article 26.05 or 26.052, as applicable.

(g) The state shall reimburse a county for attorney compensation and expenses awarded under Subsection (h). A court seeking reimbursement for a county shall certify to the comptroller of public accounts the amount of compensation and expenses for which the county is entitled to be reimbursed under this article. Not later than the 60th day after the date the comptroller receives from the court the request for reimbursement, the comptroller shall issue a warrant to the county in the amount certified by the court.

(h) When the court appoints an attorney other than an attorney provided by the board:

(1) except as otherwise provided by this article, the inmate's legal defense is subject to Articles 1.051, 26.04, 26.05, and 26.052, as applicable; and

(2) the county in which a facility of the correctional institutions division or a correctional facility authorized by Section 495.001, Government Code, is located shall pay from its general fund the total costs of the aggregate amount allowed and awarded by the court for attorney compensation and expenses under Article 26.05 or 26.052, as applicable.

(i) The state shall reimburse a county for attorney compensation and expenses awarded under Subsection (h). A court seeking reimbursement for a county shall certify to the comptroller of public accounts the amount of compensation and expenses for which the county is entitled to be reimbursed under this article. Not later than the 60th day after the date the comptroller receives from the court the request for reimbursement, the comptroller shall issue a warrant to the county in the amount certified by the court.

Art. 26.052. APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL IN DEATH PENALTY CASE; REIMBURSEMENT OF INVESTIGATIVE EXPENSES.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, this article establishes procedures in death penalty cases for appointment and payment of counsel to represent indigent defendants at trial and on direct appeal and to apply for writ of certiorari in the United States Supreme Court.

(b) If a county is served by a public defender's office, trial counsel and counsel for direct appeal or to apply for a writ of certiorari may be appointed as provided by the guidelines established by the public defender's office. In all other cases in which the death penalty is sought, counsel shall be appointed as provided by this article.

(c) A local selection committee is created in each administrative judicial region created under Section 74.042, Government Code. The administrative judge of the judicial region shall appoint the members of the committee. A committee shall have not less than four members, including:

(1) the administrative judge of the judicial region;

(2) at least one district judge;

(3) a representative from the local bar association; and

(4) at least one practitioner who is board certified by the State Bar of Texas in criminal law.

(d) (1) The committee shall adopt standards for the qualification of attorneys to be appointed to represent indigent defendants in capital cases in which the death penalty is sought.

(2) The standards must require that a trial attorney appointed as lead counsel to a capital case:

(A) be a member of the State Bar of Texas;

(B) exhibit proficiency and commitment to providing quality representation to defendants in death penalty cases;

(C) have not been found by a federal or state court to have rendered ineffective assistance of counsel during the trial or appeal of any capital case, unless the local selection committee determines under subsection (n) that the conduct underlying the finding no longer accurately reflects the attorney's ability to provide effective representation;

(D) have at least five years of criminal law experience;

(E) have tried to a verdict as lead defense counsel a significant number of felony cases, including homicide trials and other trials for offenses punishable as second or first degree felonies or capital felonies;

(F) have trial experience in:

(i) the use of and challenges to mental health or forensic expert witnesses; and

(ii) investigating and presenting mitigating evidence at the penalty phase of a death penalty trial; and

(G) have participated in continuing legal education courses or other training relating to criminal defense in death penalty cases.

(3) The standards must require that an attorney appointed as lead counsel in the direct appeal of a capital case:

(A) be a member of the State Bar of Texas;

(B) exhibit proficiency and commitment to providing quality representation to defendants in death penalty cases;

(C) have not been found by a federal or state court to have rendered ineffective assistance of counsel during the trial or appeal of any capital case, unless the local selection committee determines under subsection (n) that the conduct underlying the finding no longer accurately reflects the attorney's ability to provide effective representation;

(D) have at least five years of criminal law experience;

(E) have authored a significant number of appellate briefs, including appellate briefs for homicide cases and other cases involving an offense punishable as a capital felony or a felony of the first degree or an offense described by Section 3g(a)(1), Article 42.12;

(F) have trial or appellate experience in:

(i) the use of and challenges to mental health or forensic expert witnesses; and

(ii) the use of mitigating evidence at the penalty phase of a death penalty trial; and

(G) have participated in continuing legal education courses or other training relating to criminal defense in appealing death penalty cases.

(4) The committee shall prominently post the standards in each district clerk's office in the region with a list of attorneys qualified for appointment.

(5) Not later than the second anniversary of the date an attorney is placed on the list of attorneys qualified for appointment in death penalty cases and each year following the second anniversary, the attorney must present proof to the committee that the attorney has successfully completed the minimum continuing legal education requirements of the State Bar of Texas, including a course or other form of training relating to criminal defense in death penalty cases or in appealing death penalty cases, as applicable. The committee shall remove the attorney's name from the list of qualified attorneys if the attorney fails to provide the committee with proof of completion of the continuing legal education requirements.

(e) The presiding judge of the district court in which a capital felony case is filed shall appoint two attorneys, at least one of whom must be qualified under this chapter, to represent an indigent defendant as soon as practicable after charges are filed, unless the state gives notice in writing that the state will not seek the death penalty.

(f) Appointed counsel may file with the trial court a pretrial ex parte confidential request for advance payment of expenses to investigate potential defenses. The request for expenses must state:

- (1) the type of investigation to be conducted;
- (2) specific facts that suggest the investigation will result in admissible evidence; and
- (3) an itemized list of anticipated expenses for each investigation.

(g) The court shall grant the request for advance payment of expenses in whole or in part if the request is reasonable. If the court denies in whole or in part the request for expenses, the court shall:

(1) state the reasons for the denial in writing;

(2) attach the denial to the confidential request; and

(3) submit the request and denial as a sealed exhibit to the record.

(h) Counsel may incur expenses without prior approval of the court. On presentation of a claim for reimbursement, the court shall order reimbursement of counsel for the expenses, if the expenses are reasonably necessary and reasonably incurred.

(i) If the indigent defendant is convicted of a capital felony and sentenced to death, the defendant is entitled to be represented by competent counsel on appeal and to apply for a writ of certiorari to the United States Supreme Court.

(j) As soon as practicable after a death sentence is imposed in a capital felony case, the presiding judge of the convicting court shall appoint counsel to represent an indigent defendant on appeal and to apply for a writ of certiorari, if appropriate.

(k) The court may not appoint an attorney as counsel on appeal if the attorney represented the defendant at trial, unless:

(1) the defendant and the attorney request the appointment on the record; and

(2) the court finds good cause to make the appointment.

(l) An attorney appointed under this article to represent a defendant at trial or on direct appeal is compensated as provided by Article 26.05 from county funds. Advance payment of expenses anticipated or reimbursement of expenses incurred for purposes of investigation or expert testimony may be paid directly to a private investigator licensed under the Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies Act (Article 4413(29bb), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) or to an expert witness in the manner designated by appointed counsel and approved by the court.

(m) The local selection committee shall annually review the list of attorneys posted under Subsection (d) to ensure that each listed attorney satisfies the requirements under this chapter.

(n) At the request of an attorney, the local selection committee shall make a determination under subsection (d)(2)(C) or (3)(C), as applicable, regarding an attorney's current ability to provide effective representation following a judicial finding that the attorney previously rendered ineffective assistance of counsel in a capital case.

COMMENTARY: The interest of justice may require providing an indigent defendant expert assistance if such assistance is 'likely to be a significant factor at trial.' Ex parte Jimenez, 364 S.W.3d 866, 877 (Tex. Crim. App. 2012) (quoting Ake v. Oklahoma, 470 U.S. 68, 74 (1985)). Such assistance, however, is not without limitation: indigent defendants are not guaranteed the same quality and quantity of assistance that their opponents may purchase. Id. Additionally, a defendant is not entitled to select an expert based on his own personal preference or one who will agree with his defense theory. Id. "But if the defendant makes a sufficient threshold showing of the need for expert assistance on a particular issue, the defendant is entitled to access to at least one expert" to present his defense in the best possible light. Id. at 877 (citing Griffith v. State, 983 S.W.2d 282, 286 (Tex. Crim. App. 1998)).

The Supreme Court has held that an indigent defendant, in order to receive expert assistance, must provide concrete reasons for requiring the appointment of any particular expert rather than simply stating that such an appointment would be advantageous. Id. at 878 (citing Caldwell v. Mississippi, 472 U.S. 320, 323 n.1 (1985)). Courts have held that a trial judge does not err in denying funds for an appointed expert when defense fails to provide the particulars required by 26.052(f). Id.

"A failure to comply with Art. 26.052 is susceptible to a harmless error analysis" Kirk v. State, 199 S.W.3d 467, 473 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2006, pet. ref'd). Failing to assign two attorneys qualified under Art. 26.052 was harmless error when the State represented to the court and the defendant's trial counsel that it would not seek the death penalty. Id.

Art. 26.056. CONTRIBUTION FROM STATE IN CERTAIN COUNTIES.

Sec. 1.

A county in which a state training school for delinquent children is located shall pay from its general fund the first $250 of fees awarded for court-appointed counsel under Article 26.05 toward defending a child committed to the school from another county who is being prosecuted for a felony or misdemeanor in the county where the training school is located.

Sec. 2.

If the fees awarded for counsel compensation are in excess of $250, the court shall certify the amount in excess of $250 to the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. The Comptroller shall issue a warrant to the court-appointed counsel in the amount certified to the comptroller by the court.

Art. 26.057. COST OF EMPLOYMENT OF COUNSEL FOR CERTAIN MINORS.

If a juvenile has been transferred to a criminal court under Section 54.02, Family Code, and if a court appoints counsel for the juvenile under Article 26.04 of this code, the county that pays for the counsel has a cause of action against a parent or other person who is responsible for the support of the juvenile and is financially able to employ counsel for the juvenile but refuses to do so. The county may recover its cost of payment to the appointed counsel and may recover attorney's fees necessary to prosecute the cause of action against the parent or other person.

Art. 26.06. ELECTED OFFICIALS NOT TO BE APPOINTED.

No court may appoint an elected county, district or state official to represent a person accused of crime, unless the official has notified the court of his availability for appointment. If an official has notified the court of his availability and is appointed as counsel, he may decline the appointment if he determines that it is in the best interest of his office to do so. Nothing in this Code shall modify any statutory provision for legislative continuance.

COMMENTARY: A justice of the peace is implicitly authorized by Sec. 82.064, Government Code, and Art. 26.06, Code of Criminal Procedure, to accept an appointment to represent an indigent criminal defendant at the appellate level. Op. Tex. Att'y Gen. GA-0651 (2008).

Art. 26.07. NAME AS STATED IN INDICTMENT.

When the defendant is arraigned, his name, as stated in the indictment, shall be distinctly called; and unless he suggest by himself or counsel that he is not indicted by his true name, it shall be taken that his name is truly set forth, and he shall not thereafter be allowed to deny the same by way of defense.

Art. 26.08. IF DEFENDANT SUGGESTS DIFFERENT NAME.

If the defendant, or his counsel for him, suggests that he bears some name different from that stated in the indictment, the same shall be noted upon the minutes of the court, the indictment corrected by inserting therein the name of the defendant as suggested by himself or his counsel for him, the style of the case changed so as to give his true name, and the cause proceed as if the true name had been first recited in the indictment.

Art. 26.09. IF ACCUSED REFUSES TO GIVE HIS REAL NAME.

If the defendant alleges that he is not indicted by his true name, and refuses to say what his real name is, the cause shall proceed as if the name stated in the indictment were true; and the defendant shall not be allowed to contradict the same by way of defense.

Art. 26.10. WHERE NAME IS UNKNOWN.

A defendant described as a person whose name is unknown may have the indictment so corrected as to give therein his true name.

Art. 26.11. INDICTMENT READ.

The name of the accused having been called, if no suggestion, such as is spoken of in the four preceding Articles, be made, or being made is disposed of as before directed, the indictment shall be read, and the defendant asked whether he is guilty or not, as therein charged.

Art. 26.12. PLEA OF NOT GUILTY ENTERED.

If the defendant answers that he is not guilty, such plea shall be entered upon the minutes of the court; if he refuses to answer, the plea of not guilty shall in like manner be entered.

Art. 26.13. PLEA OF GUILTY.

(a) Prior to accepting a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, the court shall admonish the defendant of:

(1) the range of the punishment attached to the offense;

(2) the fact that the recommendation of the prosecuting attorney as to punishment is not binding on the court. Provided that the court shall inquire as to the existence of any plea bargaining agreements between the state and the defendant and, in the event that such an agreement exists, the court shall inform the defendant whether it will follow or reject such agreement in open court and before any finding on the plea. Should the court reject any such agreement, the defendant shall be permitted to withdraw his plea of guilty or nolo contendere;

(3) the fact that if the punishment assessed does not exceed the punishment recommended by the prosecutor and agreed to by the defendant and his attorney, the trial court must give its permission to the defendant before he may prosecute an appeal on any matter in the case except for those matters raised by written motions filed prior to trial;

(4) the fact that if the defendant is not a citizen of the United States of America, a plea of guilty or nolo contendere for the offense charged may result in deportation, the exclusion from admission to this country, or the denial of naturalization under federal law; and

(5) the fact that the defendant will be required to meet the registration requirements of Chapter 62, if the defendant is convicted of or placed on deferred adjudication for an offense for which a person is subject to registration under that chapter.

(b) No plea of guilty or plea of nolo contendere shall be accepted by the court unless it appears that the defendant is mentally competent and the plea is free and voluntary.

(c) In admonishing the defendant as herein provided, substantial compliance by the court is sufficient, unless the defendant affirmatively shows that he was not aware of the consequences of his plea and that he was misled or harmed by the admonishment of the court.

(d) The court may make the admonitions required by this article either orally or in writing. If the court makes the admonitions in writing, it must receive a statement signed by the defendant and the defendant's attorney that he understands the admonitions and is aware of the consequences of his plea. If the defendant is unable or refuses to sign the statement, the court shall make the admonitions orally.

(e) Before accepting a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, the court shall inquire as to whether a victim impact statement has been returned to the attorney representing the state and ask for a copy of the statement if one has been returned.

(f) The court must substantially comply with Subsection (e) of this article. The failure of the court to comply with Subsection (e) of this article is not grounds for the defendant to set aside the conviction, sentence, or plea.

(g) Before accepting a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere and on the request of a victim of the offense, the court may assist the victim and the defendant in participating in a victim-offender mediation program.

(h) The court must substantially comply with Subsection (a)(5). The failure of the court to comply with Subsection (a)(5) is not a ground for the defendant to set aside the conviction, sentence, or plea.

(i) Notwithstanding this article, a court shall not order the state or any of its prosecuting attorneys to participate in mediation, dispute resolution, arbitration, or other similar procedures in relation to a criminal prosecution unless upon written consent of the state.

Art. 26.14. JURY ON PLEA OF GUILTY.

Where a defendant in a case of felony persists in pleading guilty or in entering a plea of nolo contendere, if the punishment is not absolutely fixed by law, a jury shall be impaneled to assess the punishment and evidence may be heard to enable them to decide thereupon, unless the defendant in accordance with Articles 1.13 or 37.07 shall have waived his right to trial by jury.

Art. 26.15. CORRECTING NAME.

In any case, the same proceedings shall be had with respect to the name of the defendant and the correction of the indictment or information as provided with respect to the same in capital cases.

CHAPTER 38. EVIDENCE IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS

Art. 38.30. INTERPRETER.

(a) When a motion for appointment of an interpreter is filed by any party or on motion of the court, in any criminal proceeding, it is determined that a person charged or a witness does not understand and speak the English language, an interpreter must be sworn to interpret for the person charged or the witness. Any person may be subpoenaed, attached or recognized in any criminal action or proceeding, to appear before the proper judge or court to act as interpreter therein, under the same rules and penalties as are provided for witnesses. In the event that the only available interpreter is not considered to possess adequate interpreting skills for the particular situation or the interpreter is not familiar with use of slang, the person charged or witness may be permitted by the court to nominate another person to act as intermediary between the person charged or witness and the appointed interpreter during the proceedings.

(a-1) A qualified telephone interpreter may be sworn to interpret for the person in the trial of a class C misdemeanor or a proceeding before a magistrate if an interpreter is not available to appear in person before the court or if the only available interpreter is not considered to possess adequate interpreting skills for the particular situation or is unfamiliar with the use of slang. In this subsection, "qualified telephone interpreter" means a telephone service that employs:

(1) licensed court interpreters as defined by Section 157.001—~~57.004~~, Government Code; or

(2) federally certified court interpreters.

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (c) of this article, interpreters appointed under the terms of this article will receive from the general fund of the county for their services a sum not to exceed $100 a day as follows: interpreters shall be paid not less than $15 nor more than $100 a day at the discretion of the judge presiding, and when travel of the interpreter is involved all the actual expenses of travel, lodging, and meals incurred by the interpreter pertaining to the case the interpreter is appointed to serve shall be paid at the same rate applicable to state employees.

(c) A county commissioners court may set a payment schedule and expend funds for the services of interpreters in excess of the daily amount of not less than $15 or more than $100 established by Subsection (b) of this article.

Effective date: 9/1/14

2013 LEGISLATIVE NOTE: SB 966 makes a conforming change to subsection (a-1)(1).

Art. 38.31. INTERPRETERS FOR DEAF PERSONS.

(a) If the court is notified by a party that the defendant is deaf and will be present at an arraignment, hearing, examining trial, or trial, or that a witness is deaf and will be called at a hearing, examining trial, or trial, the court shall appoint a qualified interpreter to interpret the proceedings in any language that the deaf person can understand, including but not limited to sign language. On the court's motion or the motion of a party, the court may order testimony of a deaf witness and the interpretation of that testimony by the interpreter visually, electronically recorded for use in verification of the transcription of the reporter's notes. The clerk of the court shall include that recording in the appellate record if requested by a party under Article 40.09 of this Code.

(b) Following the filing of an indictment, information, or complaint against a deaf defendant, the court on the motion of the defendant shall appoint a qualified interpreter to interpret in a language that the defendant can understand, including but not limited to sign language, communications concerning the case between the defendant and defense counsel. The interpreter may not disclose a communication between the defendant and defense counsel or a fact that came to the attention of the interpreter while interpreting those communications if defense counsel may not disclose that communication or fact.

(c) In all cases where the mental condition of a person is being considered and where such person may be committed to a mental institution, and where such person is deaf, all of the court proceedings pertaining to him shall be interpreted by a qualified interpreter appointed by the court.

(d) A proceeding for which an interpreter is required to be appointed under this Article may not commence until the appointed interpreter is in a position not exceeding ten feet from and in full view of the deaf person.

(e) The interpreter appointed under the terms of this Article shall be required to take an oath that he will make a true interpretation to the person accused or being examined, which person is deaf, of all the proceedings of his case in a language that he understands; and that he will repeat said deaf person's answer to questions to counsel, court, or jury, in the English language, in his best skill and judgment.

(f) Interpreters appointed under this Article are entitled to a reasonable fee determined by the court after considering the recommendations of the Texas Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing. When travel of the interpreter is involved all the actual expenses of travel, lodging, and meals incurred by the interpreter pertaining to the case he is appointed to serve shall be paid at the same rate applicable to state employees.

(g) In this Code:

(1) "Deaf person" means a person who has a hearing impairment, regardless of whether the person also has a speech impairment that inhibits the person's comprehension of the proceedings or communication with others.

(2) "Qualified interpreter" means an interpreter for the deaf who holds a current legal certificate issued by the National Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf or a current court interpreter certificate issued by the Board for Evaluation of Interpreters at the Department of Assistive and ~~or~~ Rehabilitative Services.

Effective date: 9/1/13

2013 LEGISLATIVE NOTE: SB 1093 amends subsection (g)(2) to correct the name of the organization that houses the Board for Evaluation of Interpreters as the Department of Assistive and Rehabilitative Services rather than the Department of Assistive or Rehabilitative Services.

CHAPTER 42. JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE

Art. 42.12. COMMUNITY SUPERVISION.

Sec. 21. VIOLATION OF COMMUNITY SUPERVISION: DETENTION AND HEARING.

(a) At any time during the period of community supervision the judge may issue a warrant for violation of any of the conditions of the community supervision and cause a defendant convicted under Section

43.02, Penal Code, or under Chapter 481, Health and Safety Code, or Sections 485.031 through 485.035, Health and Safety Code, or placed on deferred adjudication after being charged with one of those offenses, to be subject to the control measures of Section 81.083, Health and Safety Code, and to the court-ordered-management provisions of Subchapter G, Chapter 81, Health and Safety Code.

(b) At any time during the period of community supervision the judge may issue a warrant for violation of any of the conditions of the community supervision and cause the defendant to be arrested. Any supervision officer, police officer or other officer with power of arrest may arrest such defendant with or without a warrant upon the order of the judge to be noted on the docket of the court. Subject to Subsection (b-1), a defendant arrested under this subsection may be detained in the county jail or other appropriate place of confinement until he can be taken before the judge for a determination regarding the alleged violation. The arresting officer shall immediately report the arrest and detention to the judge.

(b-1) Without any unnecessary delay, but not later than 48 hours after the person is arrested, the arresting officer or the person with custody of the arrested person shall take the arrested person before the judge who ordered the arrest for the alleged violation of a condition of community supervision or, if the judge is unavailable, before a magistrate of the county in which the person was arrested. The judge or magistrate shall perform all appropriate duties and may exercise all appropriate powers as provided by Article 15.17 with respect to an arrest for a new criminal offense, except that only the judge who ordered the arrest for the alleged violation may authorize the person's release on bail. The arrested person may be taken before the judge or magistrate under this subsection by means of an electronic broadcast system as provided by and subject to the requirements of Article 15.17.

(b-2) If the defendant has not been released on bail as permitted under Subsection (b-1), on motion by the defendant the judge who ordered the arrest for the alleged violation of a condition of community supervision shall cause the defendant to be brought before the judge for a hearing on the alleged violation within 20 days of filing of said motion, and after a hearing without a jury, may either continue, extend, modify, or revoke the community supervision. A judge may revoke the community supervision of a defendant who is imprisoned in a penal institution without a hearing if the defendant in writing before a court of record in the jurisdiction where imprisoned waives his right to a hearing and to counsel, affirms that he has nothing to say as to why sentence should not be pronounced against him, and requests the judge to revoke community supervision and to pronounce sentence. In a felony case, the state may amend the motion to revoke community supervision any time up to seven days before the date of the revocation hearing, after which time the motion may not be amended except for good cause shown, and in no event may the state amend the motion after the commencement of taking evidence at the hearing. The judge may continue the hearing for good cause shown by either the defendant or the state.

(c) The court may not revoke the community supervision of a defendant if, at the community supervision revocation hearing, the court finds that the only evidence supporting the alleged violation of a condition of community supervision is the uncorroborated results of a polygraph examination. In a community supervision revocation hearing at which it is alleged only that the defendant violated the conditions of community supervision by failing to pay compensation paid to appointed counsel, community supervision fees, or court costs, the state must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant was able to pay and did not pay as ordered by the judge. The court may order a community supervision and corrections department to obtain information pertaining to the factors listed under Article 42.037(h) of this code and include that information in the report required under Section 9(a) of this article or a separate report, as the court directs.

(d) A defendant has a right to counsel at a hearing under this section. The court shall appoint counsel for an indigent defendant in accordance with the procedures adopted under Article 26.04.

(e) A court retains jurisdiction to hold a hearing under Subsection (b-2)(b) and to revoke, continue, or modify community supervision, regardless of whether the period of community supervision imposed on the defendant has expired, if before the expiration the attorney representing the state files a motion to revoke, continue, or modify community supervision and a capias is issued for the arrest of the defendant.

Effective date: 9/1/13.

2013 LEGISLATIVE NOTE: SB 358 amends Subsection (c) to prevent the court from revoking community supervision of a defendant in the event that the court finds that the only evidence supporting the alleged violation of a condition of community supervision is the uncorroborated results of a polygraph examination. SB 358 also makes non-substantive, conforming changes to subsection (c).

SB 1093 amends Subsection (e) to indicate a conforming change.

COMMENTARY: If probationer at revocation hearing is indigent and has not waived the right to counsel, counsel must be appointed. Mempa v. Rhay, 389 U.S. 128, 137 (1967).

(4) a hearing prior to commitment to the Texas Youth Commission as a modified disposition in accordance with Section 54.05(f) of this code; or

(5) hearings required by Chapter 55 of this code.

(c) If the child was not represented by an attorney at the detention hearing required by Section 54.01 of this code and a determination was made to detain the child, the child shall immediately be entitled to representation by an attorney. The court shall order the retention of an attorney according to Subsection (d) or appoint an attorney according to Subsection (f).

(d) The court shall order a child's parent or other person responsible for support of the child to employ an attorney to represent the child, if:

- (1) the child is not represented by an attorney;
- (2) after giving the appropriate parties an opportunity to be heard, the court determines that the parent or other person responsible for support of the child is financially able to employ an attorney to represent the child; and
- (3) the child's right to representation by an attorney:

(A) has not been waived under Section 51.09 of this code; or

(B) may not be waived under Subsection (b) of this section.

(e) The court may enforce orders under Subsection (d) by proceedings under Section 54.07 or by appointing counsel and ordering the parent or other person responsible for support of the child to pay a reasonable attorney's fee set by the court. The order may be enforced under Section 54.07.

(f) The court shall appoint an attorney to represent the interest of a child entitled to representation by an attorney, if:

(1) the child is not represented by an attorney;

(2) the court determines that the child's parent or other person responsible for support of the child is financially unable to employ an attorney to represent the child; and

(3) the child's right to representation by an attorney:

(A) has not been waived under Section 51.09 of this code; or

(B) may not be waived under Subsection (b) of this section.

(g) The juvenile court may appoint an attorney in any case in which it deems representation necessary to protect the interests of the child.

(h) Any attorney representing a child in proceedings under this title is entitled to 10 days to prepare for any adjudication or transfer hearing under this title.

(i) Except as provided in Subsection (d) of this section, an attorney appointed under this section to represent the interests of a child shall be paid from the general fund of the county in which the proceedings were instituted according to the schedule in Article 26.05 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965. For this purpose, a bona fide appeal to a court of civil appeals or proceedings on the merits in the Texas Supreme Court are considered the equivalent of a bona fide appeal to the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

(j) The juvenile board of a county may make available to the public the list of attorneys eligible for appointment to represent children in proceedings under this title as provided in the plan adopted under Section 51.102. The list of attorneys must indicate the level of case for which each attorney is eligible for appointment under Section 51.102(b)(2).

reimburse the county for payments the county made to counsel appointed to represent the child under Subsection (f) or (g). The court may:

(2) include amounts paid to or on behalf of the attorney by the county for preparation time and investigative and expert witness costs; and

(3) require full or partial reimbursement to the county.

(l) The court may not order payments under Subsection (k) that exceed the financial ability of the parent or other person responsible for support of the child to meet the payment schedule ordered by the court.

The Anders procedure set forth by the Supreme Court extends to juvenile appeals. In re D.A.S., 973 S.W.2d at 298.

Sec. 51.101. APPOINTMENT OF ATTORNEY AND CONTINUATION OF REPRESENTATION.

(a) If an attorney is appointed under Section 54.01(b-1) or (d) to represent a child at the initial detention hearing and the child is detained, the attorney shall continue to represent the child until the case is terminated, the family retains an attorney, or a new attorney is appointed by the juvenile court. Release of the child from detention does not terminate the attorney's representation.

(b) If there is an initial detention hearing without an attorney and the child is detained, the attorney appointed under Section 51.10(c) shall continue to represent the child until the case is terminated, the family retains an attorney, or a new attorney is appointed by the juvenile court. Release of the child from detention does not terminate the attorney's representation.

(c) The juvenile court shall determine, on the filing of a petition, whether the child's family is indigent if: (1) the child is released by intake; (2) the child is released at the initial detention hearing; or (3) the case was referred to the court without the child in custody.

(d) A juvenile court that makes a finding of indigence under Subsection (c) shall appoint an attorney to represent the child on or before the fifth working day after the date the petition for adjudication or discretionary transfer hearing was served on the child. An attorney appointed under this subsection shall continue to represent the child until the case is terminated, the family retains an attorney, or a new attorney is appointed by the juvenile court.

(e) The juvenile court shall determine whether the child's family is indigent if a motion or petition is filed under Section 54.05 seeking to modify disposition by committing the child to the Texas Youth Commission or placing the child in a secure correctional facility. A court that makes a finding of indigence shall appoint an attorney to represent the child on or before the fifth working day after the date the petition or motion has been filed. An attorney appointed under this subsection shall continue to represent the child until the court rules on the motion or petition, the family retains an attorney, or a new attorney is appointed.

Effective date: 9/1/13

2013 LEGISLATIVE NOTE: HB 1318 amends subsection (a) to indicate a conforming change.

Sec. 51.102. APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL PLAN.

(a) The juvenile board in each county shall adopt a plan that:

(1) specifies the qualifications necessary for an attorney to be included on an appointment list from which attorneys are appointed to represent children in proceedings under this title; and

(2) establishes the procedures for:

(A) including attorneys on the appointment list and removing attorneys from the list; and

(B) appointing attorneys from the appointment list to individual cases.

(b) A plan adopted under Subsection (a) must:

(1) to the extent practicable, comply with the requirements of Article 26.04, Code of Criminal Procedure, except that:

(A) the income and assets of the child's parent or other person responsible for the child's support must be used in determining whether the child is indigent; and

(B) any alternative plan for appointing counsel is established by the juvenile board in the county; and

(2) recognize the differences in qualifications and experience necessary for appointments to cases in which:

(A) the allegation is:

(i) conduct indicating a need for supervision or delinquent conduct, and commitment to the Texas Youth Commission is not an authorized disposition; or

(ii) delinquent conduct, and commitment to the Texas Youth Commission without a determinate sentence is an authorized disposition; or

(B) determinate sentence proceedings have been initiated or proceedings for discretionary transfer to criminal court have been initiated.

Sec. 54.01. DETENTION HEARING.

(a) Except as provided by Subsection (p), if the child is not released under Section 53.02, a detention hearing without a jury shall be held promptly, but not later than the second working day after the child is taken into custody; provided, however, that when a child is detained on a Friday or Saturday, then such detention hearing shall be held on the first working day after the child is taken into custody.

(b) Reasonable notice of the detention hearing, either oral or written, shall be given, stating the time, place, and purpose of the hearing. Notice shall be given to the child and, if they can be found, to his parents, guardian, or custodian. Prior to the commencement of the hearing, the court shall inform the parties of the child's right to counsel and to appointed counsel if they are indigent and of the child's right to remain silent with respect to any allegations of delinquent conduct, conduct indicating a need for supervision, or conduct that violates an order of probation imposed by a juvenile court.

(b-1) Unless the court finds that the appointment of counsel is not feasible due to exigent circumstances, the court shall appoint counsel within a reasonable time before the first detention hearing is held to represent the child at that hearing.

(c) At the detention hearing, the court may consider written reports from probation officers, professional court employees, or professional consultants in addition to the testimony of witnesses. Prior to the detention hearing, the court shall provide the attorney for the child with access to all written matter to be considered by the court in making the detention decision. The court may order counsel not to reveal items to the child or his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem if such disclosure would materially harm the treatment and rehabilitation of the child or would substantially decrease the likelihood of receiving information from the same or similar sources in the future.

(d) A detention hearing may be held without the presence of the child's parents if the court has been unable to locate them. If no parent or guardian is present, the court shall appoint counsel or a guardian ad litem for the child, subject to the requirements of Subsection (b-1).

(e) At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall order the child released from detention unless it finds that:

(1) he is likely to abscond or be removed from the jurisdiction of the court;

(2) suitable supervision, care, or protection for him is not being provided by a parent, guardian, custodian, or other person;

(3) he has no parent, guardian, custodian, or other person able to return him to the court when required;

(4) he may be dangerous to himself or may threaten the safety of the public if released; or

(5) he has previously been found to be a delinquent child or has previously been convicted of a penal offense punishable by a term in jail or prison and is likely to commit an offense if released.

(f) Unless otherwise agreed in the memorandum of understanding under Section 37.011, Education Code, a release may be conditioned on requirements reasonably necessary to insure the child's appearance at later proceedings, but the conditions of the release must be in writing and a copy furnished to the child. In a county with a population greater than 125,000, if a child being released under this section is expelled under Section 37.007, Education Code, the release shall be conditioned on the child's attending a juvenile justice alternative education program pending a deferred prosecution or formal court disposition of the child's case.

(g) No statement made by the child at the detention hearing shall be admissible against the child at any other hearing.

(h) A detention order extends to the conclusion of the disposition hearing, if there is one, but in no event for more than 10 working days. Further detention orders may be made following subsequent detention hearings. The initial detention hearing may not be waived but subsequent detention hearings may be waived in accordance with the requirements of Section 51.09. Each subsequent detention order shall extend for no more than 10 working days, except that in a county that does not have a certified juvenile detention facility, as described by Section 51.12(a)(3), each subsequent detention order shall extend for no more than 15 working days.

(i) A child in custody may be detained for as long as 10 days without the hearing described in Subsection (a) of this section if:

(1) a written request for shelter in detention facilities pending arrangement of transportation to his place of residence in another state or country or another county of this state is voluntarily executed by the child not later than the next working day after he was taken into custody;

(2) the request for shelter contains:

(A) a statement by the child that he voluntarily agrees to submit himself to custody and detention for a period of not longer than 10 days without a detention hearing;

(B) an allegation by the person detaining the child that the child has left his place of residence in another state or country or another county of this state, that he is in need of shelter, and that an effort is being made to arrange transportation to his place of residence; and

(C) a statement by the person detaining the child that he has advised the child of his right to demand a detention hearing under Subsection (a) of this section; and

(3) the request is signed by the juvenile court judge to evidence his knowledge of the fact that the child is being held in detention.

(j) The request for shelter may be revoked by the child at any time, and on such revocation, if further detention is necessary, a detention hearing shall be held not later than the next working day in accordance with Subsections (a) through (g) of this section.

(k) Notwithstanding anything in this title to the contrary, the child may sign a request for shelter without the concurrence of an adult specified in Section 51.09 of this code.

(l) The juvenile board may appoint a referee to conduct the detention hearing. The referee shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in this state. Such payment or additional payment as may be warranted for referee services shall be provided from county funds. Before commencing the detention hearing, the referee shall inform the parties who have appeared that they are entitled to have the hearing before the juvenile court judge or a substitute judge authorized by Section 51.04(f). If a party objects to the referee conducting the detention hearing, an authorized judge shall conduct the hearing within 24 hours. At the conclusion of the hearing, the referee shall transmit written findings and recommendations to the juvenile court judge or substitute judge. The juvenile court judge or substitute judge shall adopt, modify, or reject the referee's recommendations not later than the next working day after the day that the judge receives the recommendations. Failure to act within that time results in release of the child by operation of law. A recommendation that the child be released operates to secure the child's immediate release, subject to the power of the juvenile court judge or substitute judge to reject or modify that recommendation. The effect of an order detaining a child shall be computed from the time of the hearing before the referee.

(m) The detention hearing required in this section may be held in the county of the designated place of detention where the child is being held even though the designated place of detention is outside the county of residence of the child or the county in which the alleged delinquent conduct, conduct indicating a need for supervision, or probation violation occurred.

(n) An attorney appointed by the court under Section 51.10(c) because a determination was made under this section to detain a child who was not represented by an attorney may request on behalf of the child and is entitled to a de novo detention hearing under this section. The attorney must make the request not later than the 10th working day after the date the attorney is appointed. The hearing must take place not later than the second working day after the date the attorney filed a formal request with the court for a hearing.

(o) The court or referee shall find whether there is probable cause to believe that a child taken into custody without an arrest warrant or a directive to apprehend has engaged in delinquent conduct, conduct indicating a need for supervision, or conduct that violates an order of probation imposed by a juvenile court. The court or referee must make the finding within 48 hours, including weekends and holidays, of the time the child was taken into custody. The court or referee may make the finding on any reasonably reliable information without regard to admissibility of that information under the Texas Rules of Evidence. A finding of probable cause is required to detain a child after the 48th hour after the time the child was taken into custody. If a court or referee finds probable cause, additional findings of probable cause are not required in the same cause to authorize further detention.

(p) If a child is detained in a county jail or other facility as provided by Section 51.12(l) and the child is not released under Section 53.02(f), a detention hearing without a jury shall be held promptly, but not later than the 24th hour, excluding weekends and holidays, after the time the child is taken into custody.

(q) If a child has not been released under Section 53.02 or this section and a petition has not been filed under Section 53.04 or 54.05 concerning the child, the court shall order the child released from detention not later than:

(1) the 30th working day after the date the initial detention hearing is held, if the child is alleged to have engaged in conduct constituting a capital felony, an aggravated controlled substance felony, or a felony of the first degree; or

(2) the 15th working day after the date the initial detention hearing is held, if the child is alleged to have engaged in conduct constituting an offense other than an offense listed in Subdivision (1) or conduct that violates an order of probation imposed by a juvenile court.

(q-1) The juvenile board may impose an earlier deadline than the specified deadlines for filing petitions under Subsection (q) and may specify the consequences of not filing a petition by the deadline the juvenile board has established. The juvenile board may authorize but not require the juvenile court to release a respondent from detention for failure of the prosecutor to file a petition by the juvenile board's deadline.

(r) On the conditional release of a child from detention by judicial order under Subsection (f), the court, referee, or detention magistrate may order that the child's parent, guardian, or custodian present in court at the detention hearing engage in acts or omissions specified by the court, referee, or detention magistrate that will assist the child in complying with the conditions of release. The order must be in writing and a copy furnished to the parent, guardian, or custodian. An order entered under this subsection may be enforced as provided by Chapter 61.

Effective Date: 9/1/2013.

2013 LEGISLATIVE NOTE: HB 1318 adds subsection (b-1) to require the juvenile court to appoint counsel before the initial detention hearing if the child is unrepresented and qualifies for appointed counsel. The only exception to this requirement is a situation in which the court finds that the appointment of counsel is "not feasible due to exigent circumstances." Section (d) is amended to reflect the addition of subsection (b-1).

This report must comport with the final financial expenditure report. At least once each year during the award period, each grantee must complete a physical inventory of all property purchased with Commission Task Force funds and the grantee must reconcile the results with the purchased property records. (b) Monitoring Process. The policy monitor examines the local indigent defense plans and local procedures and processes to determine if the jurisdiction meets the statutory requirements and rules adopted by the Task Force. The policy monitor also attempts to randomly select samples of actual cases from the period of review by using a 15% confidence interval for a population at a 95% confidence level.

(c) Core Requirements. On-site policy monitoring focuses on the six core requirements of the Fair Defense Act and related rules. This rule establishes the process for evaluating policy compliance with a requirement and sets benchmarks for determining whether a county is in substantial policy compliance with the requirement.

(1) Prompt and Accurate Magistration.

(A) The policy monitor shall review the local indigent defense plans and determine if they require:

(i) Magistration within 48 hours of arrest;

(ii) That the right to counsel be communicated to the arrestee, the arrestee be provided an opportunity to request counsel, and both be recorded; and

(iii) Transmittal of the request for appointed counsel to the appointing authority within 24 hours of request.

(B) The policy monitor shall check for documentation indicating that the magistrate or county has:

(i) Informed and explained to an arrestee the rights listed in Article 15.17(a), Code of Criminal Procedure, including the right to counsel;

(ii) Maintained a process to magistrate arrestees within 48 hours of arrest;

(iii) Maintained a process for magistrates not authorized to appoint counsel to transmit requests for counsel to the appointing authority within 24 hours of the request; and

(iv) Maintained magistrate processing records required by Article 15.17(a), (e), and (f), Code of Criminal Procedure, and records documenting the time of arrest, time of magistration, whether the person requested counsel, and time for transferring requests for counsel to the appointing authority.

(C) A county is presumed to be in substantial compliance with the prompt magistration requirement if magistration in at least 98% of the policy monitor's sample is conducted within 48 hours of arrest.

(2) Indigence Determination. The policy monitor shall review the local indigent defense plans and determine if they:

(A) Specify procedures and standards for determining whether a defendant is indigent;

(B) Apply the procedures and standards to each defendant in the county equally, regardless of whether the defendant is in custody or has been released on bail; and

(C) In the case of juveniles, specify that the income and assets of the parent or other person responsible for the juvenile shall be considered in determining the indigence of the child.

(3) Minimum Attorney Qualifications. The policy monitor shall review the local indigent defense plans and documentation to determine if they:

(A) Specify objective qualifications that attorneys must meet to be eligible for appointment, including the continuing legal education (CLE) requirements set out in §§174.1 - 174.4 of this title and annually track attorney CLE hours;

(B) Require each attorney applying to be on an appointment list be approved by a majority of the judges who try criminal cases at the felony or misdemeanor offense level, respectively, or by a majority vote of the juvenile board in juvenile cases; and

(C) In the case of juveniles, recognize the differences in qualifications and experience necessary for appointments for different offense levels as required by Texas Family Code §51.102(b)(2).

(4) Prompt Appointment of Counsel.

(A) The policy monitor shall review the local indigent defense plans and determine if they require:

(i) Counsel to be appointed for indigent defendants within one working day of receipt of the request for counsel in counties with a population of 250,000 or more, or three working days in other counties;

(ii) For juveniles not represented at the initial detention hearing, either immediate appointment of counsel or an order requiring the person having custody over the child to retain counsel if the person with custody is not found to be indigent;

(iii) For juveniles, that counsel to be appointed within five working days of the service on the child of the petition if the child's custodian is found indigent.

(B) The policy monitor shall check for documentation indicating that:

(i) Counsel was appointed for arrestees within one working day of receipt of the request for counsel in counties with a population of 250,000 or more, or three working days in other counties; and

(ii) Counsel was appointed within one day of the detention hearing for in-custody juveniles and within five working days of service of the petition on the juvenile for out-of-custody juveniles.

(C) A county is presumed to be in substantial compliance with the prompt appointment of counsel requirement if, in each level of proceedings (felony, misdemeanor, and juvenile cases), at least 90% of indigence determinations in the policy monitor's sample are timely.

(5) Attorney Selection Process.

(A) The policy monitor shall review the local indigent defense plans and determine if they:

(i) Include an attorney selection method; and

(ii) Specify who is authorized to make appointments, what appointment lists are used, and a description of when an attorney on the list may be skipped, if applicable.

(B) The policy monitor shall check for documentation indicating:

(i) In the case of a contract defender program, that all requirements of §§174.10 - 174.25 of this title are met;

(ii) That attorney selection process actually used matches what is stated in the indigent defense plans; and

(iii) The number of appointments in the policy monitor's sample per attorney at each level (felony, misdemeanor, juvenile, and appeals) during the period of review, the percentage share of appointments represented by the top 10% of attorneys accepting appointments.

(C) A county is presumed to be in substantial compliance with the fair, neutral, and non-discriminatory attorney appointment system requirement if, in each level of proceedings (felony, misdemeanor, and juvenile cases), the percentage of appointments received by the top 10% of recipient attorneys does not exceed three times their respective share. If the county can track attorney list changes, the monitor will only examine the distribution of cases for attorneys that were on the appointment list for the entire year. The top 10% of recipient attorneys is the whole attorney portion of the appointment list that is closest to 10% of the total list.

(6) Payment Process.

(A) The policy monitor shall review the local indigent defense plans and determine if they include:

(i) An attorney fee schedule;

(ii) Procedures for paying attorneys, experts, and investigators in accordance with the fee schedule; and

(iii) Procedures to reimburse expert and investigative expenses incurred without prior court approval when the expenses are reasonable and necessary.

(B) The policy monitor shall check for documentation indicating that the county has established a process for collecting and reporting itemized indigent defense expense and case information.

(d) Report.

(1) Report Issuance. The policy monitor shall issue a report to the program director within 30 days of the on-site monitoring visit to a county, unless a documented exception is provided by the director, with an alternative deadline provided, not later than 90 days from the on-site monitoring visit. The report shall contain each finding of noncompliance.

(2) County Response. Within 60 days of the date the report is issued by the policy monitor, the program director shall respond in writing to each finding of noncompliance, and shall describe the proposed corrective action to be taken by the county. The county may request the director to grant an extension of up to 60 days.

(3) Follow-up Visits. The policy monitor shall conduct an additional on-site visit to counties where the report included significant noncompliance findings. The follow-up visit shall occur within 12 months following receipt of a county's response to the report. The policy monitor shall review a county's implementation of corrective actions and shall report to the county and Task Force any remaining issues not corrected. Within 30 days of the date the follow-up report is issued by the policy monitor, the program director shall respond in writing to each finding of noncompliance, and shall describe the proposed corrective action to be taken by the county. The county may request the director to grant an extension of up to 30 days.

(4) Failure to Respond to Report. If a county fails to respond to a monitoring report or follow-up report within the required time, then a certified letter will be sent to the program director, financial officer, county judge, local administrative district court judge, local administrative statutory county court judge, and chair of the juvenile board notifying them that all further payments will be withheld if no response to the report is received by the Task Force within 10 days of receipt of the letter. If funds are withheld under this section, then the funds will not be reinstated until the Task Force or the Policies and Standards Committee approves the release of the funds.

(5) Noncompliance. If a county fails to correct any noncompliance findings, the Task Force may impose a remedy under §173.307 of this title.
